Comrades

We understand that the National Liberation struggle cannot be won if we, the student sector of our National community, are going to fight in isolation. The workers, residents, youth and christian struggles is our struggle.

Our alliance with other organisations became clear after the birth of the U.D.F. May we can boldly say that we've found ourselves a mother to take care of us.

With those words we like to thank Transvaal Regional Comm. of the U.D.F for the contribution they made in making our Regional Council. It was through this C that our members came together on Regional level to come and discuss their problems and to further strengten their organisation.

ours in the struggle against apartheid and other injustices in our country.
