Dear Mr. Paton,

I sent you a ^{American} news pamphlet on South West Africa together with some other material by air a month or two ago, enclosing a letter.

I wonder if you ever received this,
or last year's U. N. documents.

I can send the pamphlet again
if it failed to reach you (I foolishly did not register it). Would you like
U. N. documents again this year?
These were registered last Jan. or Feb.

With kind regards,

Winifred Courtney

P.S. If I do not hear from you, I will assume you do not need further
U. N. and other material.

Dear Mrs. Courtney,

You must pardon me for not having yet replied to your letter of October 14. I am glad to say that I received the materials safely, including your splendid address to the Women's International League, which I myself addressed in Providence Rhode Island, a couple of years ago.

We have been doing our best to get the New Zealand authorities and the New Zealand Football people not to omit Maoris from their team visiting South Africa next year. We actually succeeded in getting the West Indies to cancel the proposed visit of their colour-bar team to South Africa, and we are now trying to exercise pressure on the British Empire Games Committee. As you know, our ^{SA} white Olympic authorities Games. gave an assurance that no non-white South African would be excluded on grounds of colour, but I may say that we are very suspicious of this undertaking.

Please continue to send me the material. I shall try to be a more regular correspondent.

Kind regards.

Yours sincerely,

DP.
