NORTHERN CAPE REGIONAL ACTIVITY FOR DECEMBER AS PER SCHEDULE OF THE RURAL/REGIONAL ORGANISER

1. The following areas in the Northern Cape were covered during December as per schedule:

1.1. SCHWEIZER RENEKE

1.1.1. The Civic initiatives- A group of adults was met on the invitation of a youth contact. Eagerness was shown on the part of these adults to seek an alternative to the community council in Mamusa African township. Alternative to the council in the form of a civic association or an action committee was raised and discussed. A task to raise a larger number of local people was delegated to the group. An invitation to Huca's workshop was extended to them although they did not turn up.

1.1.2. The Youth- The youth meeting scheduled for the same day did not materialise as was hoped and a few youths were met and the I.Y.Y. was brainstormed.

1.2. KURUMAN

1.2.1. The Youth- A meeting of Kuruman Youth Unity was fortunate to materialise under conditions and a lot of uncertainty even at the eleventh hour. The I.Y.Y. issue was raised with them only to find that discussions had been going on within the organisation and committees to take up the campaign had already been thought of.

1.3. KIMBERLEY

1.3.1. UDF RALLY- The mass rally scheduled for the 16th December did not take place because of the following reasons:

1.3.1.1. Lack of publicity around the rally.

1.3.1.2. Printers turning down agreement to print material for advertising the rally at the eleventh hour.

1.3.1.3. Poor transport arrangements from other areas mainly Vryburg and Kuruman.

1.4. VRYBURG

1.4.1. The Youth- Frequent meetings with the youth with the youth around the I.Y.Y. were held. A committee to invite all youth groupings - in the township including church youths to draw a program for the area was formed. A Roman Catholic Youth Club's two day meeting was addressed and co-operation with the program of Huyo promised.
