My dear Benjie,

Many thanks for your letter and news. I look forward to hearing from Bob. I was told on the telephone last night that there had been a hold-up but that the matter was being vigorously pursued so all must now be well. Doubtless Bob will confirm this in a letter. The delay was sorrying.

Please do contact if there is anything I can do this end.

I wonder if you got my letter written before you telephoned. I also wrote to Ernie and would be most grateful if you could ask him if he heard from me and if he could hasten his reply. This would be most kind.

Perhaps some of your missing papers are in the BM and could be microfilmed or xeroxed. I saw a file of Platte papers a LSE anthropologist - Comaroff? ex-CT - acquired from one of the Molemas in Mafeking recently. Mostly personal things but including a diary of the Siege of Mafeking which I believe Macmillans are to publish. I could have wished they had fallen into more appreciative hands but perhaps I misjudged the man.

Yours,
