Chief S.T.Molema,
Mafeking,

~~Dear~~ Sir,

With reference to my visit at Mafeking I am sorry to say I didnt go and greet you when I was leaving as I had great difficulties in performing my "marriage" then I am here with this letter to ask you to pardon me as it is not my method to leave you without going to greet you , father, although I have succeeded I met with large troubles before I could come to the conclution of my subject, you will also be surprised to hear me saying, I really became ignorant as I have had no one to advince me , more or less I knocked the nail on the top after an hour or two's consideraftion I came well to the proceedings of my agenda, I should like to know whether ~~if~~ there is still a bit of rain at your district, we are having enough of it here nearly every day.

With greetings

I am , Sir.

A. P. S. M. W.
