The Congress interviewed Mr Saur this week, but as I had no means to go, our affairs were not represented; only Mr Fenyang managed to go.

Please answer me soon about Monnaoapula.

The children are very sick, but we manage to peg along. I hope you and the family are well. Modiri o coga sentle, o dira sentle.

Ever yours,

Sir,

I received ~~your~~ Monnapula's letter in which he mentioned sorrows like ~~general~~ ^{financial} problems in which we are all in. He ~~says~~ said Maduo had given away my garden and my ^{lot} site, he gave them to Ephraim Motema he even wanted to rob my house because he claimed that it is in his soil. Yet he said it in front of chief Joshua, late Mrs Pabo Motema and Munono's family that he gave me a plot, now why should he change like that? even if he is chasing me away, should he only talk to Monnapula and say nothing to me, please do what you can do for me, or see chief Joshua about it and help me with a reply because Monnapula is pressing me ~~for~~ ^{for} it. I do not know what to say to him. I have not at all got a reply from chief Leboko in my subsequent letters and telegrams.
