sudden intervention by Mr. Louis Le Grange is desperate a testimony of a high level attempt by the governmental ~~move~~ government to avert the rising tide of ~~change~~ of change. It is an attempt to systematically push the people's organisations in ~~craddock~~ ~~craddock~~ this ~~placate~~ action by a ~~Senior~~ Cabinet minister it is to us now ~~abundantly~~ abundantly clear that this government is incapable of learning from its past meetings mistakes. ~~The central~~

The central question today is not whether public meetings of our affiliates take place or not, but whether the demands of the ~~students and~~ ~~community~~ ~~of~~ ~~Craddock~~ are met. Our people in that region want to exercise their right to organise themselves to express the views about undemocratic local authorities and to retain Mr. Gornie one of the very few better qualified teachers in the region. Any attempt by the government to treat the people in a high handed manner can only fuel the fire of discontent thus creating conditions for another 1976 blood bath.

Nothing short of the reinstatement of Mr Gornie to his teaching post will satisfy our people in Cumbria.
Our demands therefore are -
1. the immediate and unconditional <sup>reinstatement &</sup> release of Mr. Gornie and all people defamed by the police

2. the immediate reinstatement of Mr. Gouws to his post as teacher so that our children can ~~be~~ <sup>also</sup> continue their studies.

3. the immediate uplying forth with of the 3 months ban on meetings of our ~~agitations~~ affiliates in Craddock.

We call on our people not to be intimidated by these actions. These <sup>actions</sup> are not new but characteristic of the history of resistance in South Africa.
