7th April, 1961.

Dear Sir de Villiers,

As soon as the results of the Treason Trial were known I telegraphed you on behalf of the Trustees of the Defence Fund, requesting you to make urgent representations to the Government for some form of compensation for the twenty-eight released persons, and for assistance to re-establish them in normal life. To the same effect I also telegraphed Dr. Steytler.

I sincerely hope that you will speak to Dr. Steytler about this, and make representations either inside or outside the House or both.

Kind regards.

Yours sincerely,
