The Federation of South African Women invites you/organisation to its focus week on women 9th Aug to 12th August, 1984

The 9th August is National Women's Day. It is the day when we remember the struggles of our women. A day when we pay tribute to our women for their triumphs and their tears.

This year, the Federation is celebrating its 30th Anniversary. And, we invite you to share in this very special celebration of a rich tradition of organisation of women to fight for our rights and the rights of all our people.

we call our women...

We call our women where ever they may be.

In our communities, in our churches, mosques and temples.

We call our women on the farms, in town and country. In the trade unions and in all our organisations.

Women, let us raise our voices high against Botha's New Deal, A deal which will only bring hardship to our people. A deal which has brought us GST. A tax which will pay for Botha's Apartheid parliaments.

Let us say no to our sons and brothers who will be forced to go and fight on the borders for Apartheid.

Our women and children are starving in the rural areas. Thousands are threatened with removals and resettlements. This new deal will not change anything.

On 9th Aug, 1956, 20,000 women marched to Pretoria to say no to passes for women. Thirty years later, Koornhof's bills will make the pass laws harsher.
