WHAT YOU CAN DO

You have a responsibility in this crisis. It is not true that individuals can do nothing to avert war.

One individual alone is helpless but millions of people working together in all countries, can save peace and humanity.

If it were not for the World Peace Movement, we should almost certainly be involved in World War III today.

- DEMAND A CEASE-FIRE IN KOREA, THE WITHDRAWAL OF FOREIGN TROOPS.
- FIGHT FOR AN END TO AGGRESSIVE ALLIANCES, THE REARMING AND RENAZIFICATION OF WESTERN GERMANY.
- HELP COMPEL THE SIGNING OF A FIVE-POWER PEACE PACT (over six hundred million people have already signed this appeal).
- WORK FOR THE SOLUTION OF INTERNATIONAL PROBLEMS ROUND THE CONFERENCE TABLE INSTEAD OF ON BATTLEFIELDS.
- DEMAND THE BANNING OF ATOMIC, BACTERIOLOGICAL AND CHEMICAL WEAPONS.
- SUPPORT THE TRANSVAAL PEACE COUNCIL.

(Issued by the Transvaal Peace Council, Box 525, Johannesburg)

An enormous black cloud of smoke and fire puffs upwards and rushes over and through a Korean village. It blows out the fronts of buildings. It kills the inhabitants in the very positions in which they are caught—walking, standing, running . . . it is napalm, the jelly that burns, blinds, bakes its victims . . . napalm, that broils and destroys.

The accusation has been made that the Americans are using Germ weapons in Korea. And the Conference of the World Red Cross at Toronto has now unanimously passed a resolution calling on all countries to sign the Geneva Protocol of 1925 that outlaws germ warfare (America and Japan are the only two countries that have refused to sign the Protocol.)

You may or may not believe that the accusation against America is true. You may think the deliberate spread of terrible disease is so barbaric and monstrous that no civilised nation would use it.

But whether or not germ warfare is being used in Korea, the nightmare of napalm, of mass destruction by bombing, the terror of Syngman Rhee's mass executions—these are undeniable, admitted by the Americans themselves.

"Mass executions have been taking place regularly for months—indeed, daily—and . . . have been so much a matter of course that British correspondents have been invited by South Korean authorities to witness them." (David Walker, former "Daily Mirror" correspondent in Korea.)

IT IS TIME IT WAS ENDED

- Millions have been destroyed by the horror of napalm; been executed by Syngman Rhee's police; died from starvation, disease, exposure.
- Homeless, starving refugees, their homes burnt by Americans, number 3 million or more.
- American official casualties stand at 110,000 — not including those from disease, which almost equal battle casualties.
- British casualties are 3,000.
- Total U.N. casualties are estimated at 415,000.
- The cost to America alone runs to about £150 million each month.
- The cost to Korea can't be estimated. Korean dead, North and South, are un-numbered.

This, after two years of the war that was to have been a "walk-over," won in three days.

IT IS TIME IT WAS ENDED

What justification is there for continuing this war?

What is it bringing the world—except misery, high prices, the threat of war spreading to all China, and all the world?

What are the chances for the future—except long, costly and futile trench warfare, with the continual danger of the war spreading?

Peace negotiations have dragged on for more than a year.

The continuation of the war makes it practically impossible for the Five Big Powers—America, Britain, U.S.S.R., China, France—to reach a peace agreement—an agreement that may be the last chance of our generation to achieve security and human progress.
