RELEASE OUR LEADERS!

IN THE EARLY HOURS ON TUESDAY, AUGUST 21, OUR LEADERS WERE DETAINED IN A NATIONWIDE CRACKDOWN.

Among these detained are:

Dr Essop Jassat - President, Transvaal Indian Congress (TIC)
Dr R.A.M. Saloojee - Vice-President, TIC
Mr. George Sewpersadh - President, Natal Indian Congress (NIC)
Archie Gumede - President, UDF
Terror Lekota - Publicity Secretary, UDF
Billy Nair - NIC
Mewa Ramgobin - NIC
Aubrey Mokwena - Release Mandela Committee
Curnick Ndlovo - UDF

The arrests of our leaders, shows clearly that the government's talk of change and reform is a fraud.

Faced with failure in its attempt to divide our people and strengthen Apartheid, the government has once again resorted to jack-boot tactics to crush peaceful and legitimate opposition.

They have no desire whatsoever to bring about change for the better, nor to allow the free expression of our people's views.

These arrests are the culmination of a sustained and slanderous campaign organised by the government against the UDF and Congress. They have made wild and irresponsible charges of violence, intimidation, and links with the ANC

These allegations have been repeated by those willing to take part in the apartheid elections. We hold responsible, not only Botha, but also Hendrickse, Rajbansi, Reddy, and Poovalingham for the arrests of our leaders.

By the forcible implementation of this new constitution, the government is deliberately paving the way for increasing chaos, conflict and tension in our country.

WE DEMAND - BOTHA RELEASE OUR LEADERS AND RESCIND THE CONSTITUTION.

We call on all those participating in the elections to resign immediately, to demonstrate any vestige of self-respect. It is clear this government is only prepared to talk to those who nod their heads in agreement.

At this crucial point in our history, we call on all our people to rally to the cause of PEACE, FREEDOM AND JUSTICE. We are not intimidated, and we shall continue to struggle until the aspirations of our people are realised.
