Summary

Sir,

You well know how Dennison once spoke out for our houses during votings. Please speak out too. It is said that every dog has his day. Now there is Dennison bankrupt and he is no more doing that job. When you do so, please approach Aldred and put in all the names. That is the only way we can have a say at Election Times. Do please.

I am sorry that Chief Lekoko has not seen fit to help me yet even though his people say ... of the Chief and ... it is still me. I am sorry you did not send my life sketch of the late Siako yet still in difficulties.
