Dear Dr Xuma,

I am enclosing herewith a cheque for £10.0.0 as a contribution to assist natives in the drought-stricken areas. I fervently pray that the help needed to bring relief to the natives living in the drought-stricken areas will not be wanting & will be in time.

Thanking you for undertaking this noble work on behalf of the native peoples

Yrs faithfully

You may have seen the above quoted appeals through it some donations have come from many generous hearts European and non-European. This has been highly appreciated. However, distress persists Christmas and New Year are approaching many of us are exchanging presents from what might be called surplus but the people of the areas will not even have money for the bare necessity.
Our Committee appeal from you for a donation as large as you can afford in money or in kind - food beans, rice meal meal sugar tea etc and clothing Thanking you in advance
