UDF PRESS RELEASE - 2/7/84

Mr Pik Botha claims that his government is committed to a dialogue with any party including the ANC that wants peaceful solutions to the problems of this country is not genuine. It is at best a public relations exercise that forms part of the broad strategy of the Nationalist party propaganda calculated to mislead the world as to the true intentions of his government.

If he is genuine, he must show his government's commitment to peace. This must be expressed in the following:

1. The release of Nelson Mandela, the Leadership and activists of the ANC which his govt continue to incarcerate.
2. The scrapping of the inhuman system of forced removals and relocations.
3. The reversal forthwith of the hated policy of Bantustans.
4. The re-instatement of the 6 000 students who are out of school in Pretoria.
5. The scrapping of the New Constitution and all the Korrnhof laws which have clearly been identified by the UDF as a recipe for conflict.

SIGNED.

POPO MOLEFE
GENERAL SECRETARY
