The General Secretary I.C.U.,
24 Loop Street,
Cape Town

Sir,

Please receive my resignation for the Branch that has been only signed by me. As things stands to day you will pardon me for not getting the Chairman to sign that.

You will note also that I have made no bookings ever since I came here. I have good reasons for that. It may surprise you to know that I have already enrolled members despite division in the ranks. I have high hope about Durban. My time is too limited.

Yours respectfully

Alfred Chapman
