RE : BOIPATONG AMNESTY APPLICATIONS

Your letter dated 13 January 1999 refers. The contents are noted.

You are of course entitled to lead evidence which shows that the applicants have not complied with the provisions of Section 20 of the Act No. 34 of 1995, however, I wish to advise you to be mindful of the specific issues at stake.

The Committee will have to be satisfied that the witnesses you intend calling will give relevant evidence and to that end you are requested to urgently supply to our office copies of the witness statements alternatively summaries of the material aspects of each witness' evidence.

These statements and summaries must also be supplied to the applicants attorneys as well as all other interested parties before Monday 18 January 1999.

During the evidence at the hearing, it has emerged that Kwa-Madala Hostel was sealed within hours of the attack on Boipatong. Please could you confirm precisely when the hostel was sealed, by whom it was sealed and why there was a delay in doing so.

It has also emerged during the hearing, that subsequent to the sealing off of the Hostel, strict controls were put in place by Iscor to monitor those entering and leaving the hostel.

According to Mr Moses Mthembu, Iscor has records of those people who entered and left the hostel subsequent to it being sealed off.

Please can we have copies of those records for the period 18 June 1992 to 31 October 1992.

In respect of the period prior to the massacre, Mr Moses Mthembu has stated that Iscor kept records of all hostel residents, including those "refugees" who were not employed by Iscor. Please could you let us have a copy of those records for the period 1 January 1992 to 18 June 1992.

It is common cause that Prince Vanana Zulu was employed by Iscor as at 17 June 1992. It is also common cause that he was a resident at Kwa-Madala Hostel at the time. Please would you let us have copies of all documents relating to the period during which Prince Zulu was on leave during 1992. Such documents should include applications for leave, approval thereof and appropriate wage register documents.

We tender the reasonable costs of photocopying copies of the abovementioned documentation.

Dear Sir,

RE: BOIPATONG AMNESTY APPLICATIONS

I act on behalf of certain victims of the Boipatong Massacre. Advocate D.I. Berger and Advocate P.G. Malindi act for the remaining victims. This letter is being sent to you on my own behalf and on behalf of Advocate Berger and Advocate Malindi.

Certain of your members, during their evidence in support of amnesty, have stated that Mr Andries Matanzima Nosenga, was taken from Kwa-Madala Hostel to Ulundi during July 1992 for the purposes of presenting him to the leadership of the IFP during the IFP's national conference.

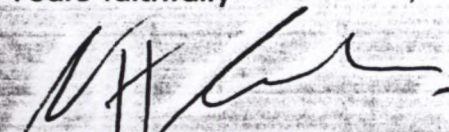

It has been further stated that Mr Nosenga was indeed paraded before the leadership of the IFP at the conference on the grounds that he had allegedly stated that he had been sent by the ANC to reconnoitre Kwa-Madala Hostel for the purpose of planting bombs at the Hostel.

We are attempting to verify these allegations and would appreciate receiving any information you might have in this regard, including minutes of the conference, press releases, video and audio recordings.

We tender the reasonable costs of copying the abovementioned material.

Kindly acknowledge receipt of this letter.

Yours faithfully

Your fax dated 11 February 1999 in which you request certain information regarding the inmates of and visitors to the Kwa-Madala hostel before and after the Boipatong massacre, refers.

Dear Sir

BOIPATONG AMNESTY APPLICATIONS

The above matter and more specifically your fax to writer hereof dated 13 April 1999, only transmitted to the writer on 22 April 1999, refer.

Writer must note his strongest objection to the last paragraph of your facsimile under reference, as the return date set for ourselves to furnish you with the information required, had already expired by the time you transmitted said document through to us. We also refer to Iscor's response dated 23 February 1999, and note that to date hereof you have not attempted to comply with the request contained therein, to the extent that you were to indicate on which grounds you regard yourself as being entitled to any information that Iscor may still have in this regard.

Please take note that, as this incident occurred some seven years ago, very few documents may still be in existence. Unfortunately, due to your delay in responding to our fax dated 23 February 1999, writer has to date not made any attempts in locating the information you require.

You are therefore requested to contact writer hereof on 28 April 1999, failing which we will consider this matter as having been dealt with. In the event of you contacting writer as you are invited to do above, the necessary arrangements can be made and reasonable time limits can be set in order for Iscor to attempt to comply with your request.

In light of the above, we hereby wish to record that all our rights in this regard, remain strictly reserved.

Yours faithfully

Dear Sir

BOIPATONG AMNESTY APPLICATIONS

Thank you for your fax of 28 April 1999, contents which have been noted.

As discussed with your assistant Nomsa, writer is not available to attend to this matter this week and could only arrange for an official from our Vanderbijlpark Works to attend to obtaining answers to your questions on Friday 30 April 1999. We will attempt to revert to you with the information at our disposal (if any) on the same date, failing which, attempt will be made to communicate the answers to you on Monday 3 May 1999.

From the above it is clear that we are attempting to accommodate you as much as possible, given the time constraints you have imposed.

We also wish to record that, as already noted in previous correspondence to yourselves, that it is not the policy of Iscor Limited to retain documentation in perpetuity. This is especially the case where information were freely shared with the South African Police Services during their investigation, and as such, information pertaining to this incident should be freely available from them. As a result, we can unfortunately not guarantee any measure of success in obtaining the information you have requested.

We trust that you find the abovementioned in order.

Dear Sir/ Sirs,

ACCOUNTS OF CAMBANIS, ADVOCATES BERGER AND MALINDI: BOIPATONG CASE

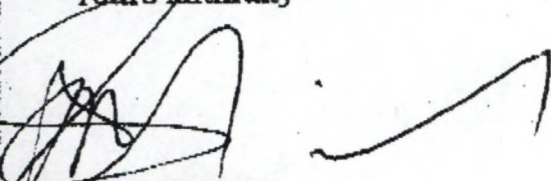

The abovementioned subject refers.

Please note that the aforesaid lawyers are complaining bitterly about either non-payment or delay in having their T.R.C's accounts settled by the Legal Aid Board. The approach adopted by the three is to account directly to the T.R.C in Cape Town largely because their accounts are never in accordance with the Statutory Tariff. The T.R.C is supposed to grant special authorisation to the Legal Aid Board to deviate from the Standard Tariff as well as forward their accounts to the Board for settlement. These never happen and the lawyers somehow are always apprised by your office that the necessary has been done.

Please note that due to the afore-stated omission by your office it becomes practically impossible to pay your Lawyers when we do not have their accounts in our files.

Further note that in future, T.R.C accounts and any authorisation must be marked for the attention of Ms. Nettie Loretz (ph: (012) 481-2763, fax: (012) 341-9522).

[REDACTED]

Dear Sir

BOIPATONG AMNESTY HEARINGS

Your fax to Adv. M. Coetzee dated 29th April 1999 refers.

I have attempted to contact you since yesterday 29th April 1999 but to no avail. It is unfortunate that your account was not paid along with your colleagues (Adv. Berger and Ms. Cambanis).

As indicated by our Ms. Shireen Fillies last week the matter is receiving our urgent attention.

We have instructed the Legal Aid Board to pay your account on the basis set out in our letter dated 26th April 1999. (A copy is attached hereto.)

We understand that this is being attended to and that you shall be paid shortly

We have also responded to the letter of Nicolls and Cambanis and Associates dated 26th April 1999 and attach a copy herewith for your attention.

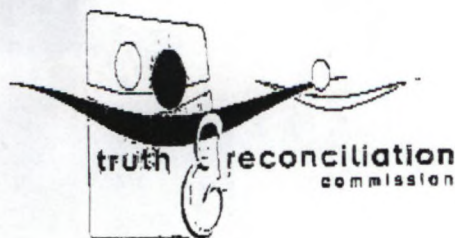

Whilst we understand some of your anxiety over the non-payment of your fees, we trust that they will be paid in due course. What we cannot understand, is that in the light of the fact that you and your colleagues have already been paid the sum of R 259 841.89 there is a need to threaten the Truth and Reconciliation Commission by withdrawing from the amnesty hearing that are nearing completion.

We encourage you to remain in the matter. However should you wish to withdraw on the basis that you have not been timeously paid, you shall have to do so formally at the hearing on 3rd May 1999.

Yours faithfully

We have this morning been notified by Ms. Faeza Brown that -

1. You have informed her that you and your colleagues shall all be withdrawing from the matter on Monday, 3 May 1999.
2. That you regard the non-payment of Adv. Malindi as being racist.

On the first point, we strongly advise you not to take this course of action and encourage you to remain in the matter.

You obviously are aware of the enormous cost involved in setting up the hearings for a three week period and that your withdrawal as attorneys for the victims could result in the possible cancellation of the hearings.

The Amnesty Committee views your intention to withdraw at this very late stage (29 April 1999 by Adv. Malindi and 30 April 1999 by yourself on behalf of Adv. Berg and Adv. Malindi), in a most serious light and the TRC shall reserve its rights in regard to any wasted costs incurred herein.

We must also point out to you that Judge Ngcobo has made special arrangements to attend to this matter during the allocated period at great sacrifice to his official duties in the Labour Appeal Court.

Secondly, we take serious offence at this remark. The correspondence in this matter will indicate the great efforts made by the TRC to assist and effect payment to Adv. Malindi. However, if you have proof that non-payment was due to racism on anybody's part we shall be glad to receive it and refer the matter to The Minister of Justice for proper investigation.

We trust that common sense will prevail and that you reconsider your position.

Dear Sir,

RE: BOIPATONG AMNESTY APPLICATIONS
3 - 21 MAY 1999

Thank you for your letter dated 30 April 1999.

We enclose herewith copies of the statements of account of Advocate Berger, Advocate Malindi as well as Attorneys Nicholls, Cambanis and Associates.

All three accounts have been simultaneously sent to the Legal Aid Board in triplicate for the attention of Mr Maile. Kindly peruse the accounts and authorize the Legal Aid Board to pay these costs.

We annex hereto a copy of Advocate Malindi's letter dated 31 July 1998 setting out the fee structure agreed to by Ms F. Brown together with the Office of the Legal Aid Officer's letter dated 20 October 1998 confirming that previous accounts have been drawn in accordance with the agreed fee structure already referred to. Please note that there is still a sum of R3 135.00 outstanding on Advocate Malindi's last account as the incorrect fee structure was used.

The matter is unfortunately still not completed. As you know it has been set down for a further 2 weeks beginning 19 July 1999. We sincerely hope that the matter, including argument, can be finalized by the end of July 1999.

Should you have any queries please do not hesitate to contact the writer hereof.

Yours faithfully
