D U R B A N .

My dear President,

You will pardon me for delaying so long to reply to yours of the 23rd instant suggesting that I should call a meeting of the Working Committee. I was awaiting a reply from our National Secretary which reached me this morning in which he says that he expects Dr. Xuma in the Cape next week when he would place Natal resolutions before him. I enclose a copy of my reply. Please return Rev. Calata's letter.

Yesterday, Oliver and I visited the Makanya people at Noodsburg and there listened to a very pathetic case of land deprivation. We promised to consult you thereon and together seek a new line of attack.

Yours faithfully,

Helb Msumang
PROVINCIAL SECRETARY.
