

DEMONSTRATE AGAINST FRENCH RUGBY COLLABORATION WITH RACIST SOUTH AFRICA

The French Rugby Team will be making a short tour of South Africa in late October. This is to compensate racist South Africa after the Springboks were banned from playing in France last year.

To demonstrate abhorrence against French collaboration with Apartheid Rugby the French Anti-Apartheid Movements will be staging demonstrations in Paris outside the headquarters of the French Rugby Federation during the first week of September.

We think that similar demonstrations outside the Embassies and/or Consulates of France in your country on one day during the first fortnight of September will not only supplement French Anti-Apartheid Action but it will also maximise the pressure on France to cancel this outrageous tour to apartheidland. Maybe letters of protest could be handed to the French Ambassador and/or Consul in your respective countries.

We appeal for your support.
