Dear Mr. Pogund,

I am writing to thank you for your excellent book: How Can Man Die Better...
Solubwe and Apartheid.

Mr. Solubwe was a great man. What a privilege to have known him for twenty years!

Your book gave me a great sense of joy for the life that was and a great sense of sorrow that he is no more. It is a tragedy that such a man is not alive today when such political changes are going on in your country. His wise counsel is needed here.

Are you able to tell me whether Mr. Solubwe's speeches are available in this country?

In appreciation of your book

Yours sincerely

Susan M. Stevenson (Mrs)
