

MEMORANDUM ON NAT/DET/SGT. - MAKALISA.

This witness reports in good and intelligible English but his reports are very scanty and brief. He concedes that "a great deal" is said at meetings which he is unable to record. p. 3630 (V.19). Several of the meetings at Worcester were opened with a prayer.

The witness is not truthful when he states that the notes he made about meeting No. 458 were made at the meeting. see my note below.

There does not appear to be anything of much importance in the witness's notes.

Meeting No. 223.

p.3624. (V.19). Meeting lasted 1 hr. 50 mins, recorded Ex. G. 395. on 1. page.

Meeting No. 458.

p. 5212 (V.27). The notes concerning this meeting are in Ex. G. 745. narrative form and obviously were not made at the meeting which was a Conference lasting 2 days.

The witness rather gave himself away when he said the second page of his notes relating to the second day were made after the Conference. see p. 5214 (V.27).

On 5215 (V.27). however, the witness once again affirms that these notes relating to the 2nd day were made at the Conference.

N.B. This is the only occasion on which the speeches are recorded in narrative form.
