WORLD YOUTH DAY CELEBRATIONS

The mighty World Federation of Democratic Youth was founded on the 10th November, 1945, to strengthen and consolidate the youth movement throughout the world in defence of Peace, National Independence, and Freedom. W.F.D.Y. with a membership of 93,000,000, comprising all sections of young people—students, artists, workers, peasants, miners.—has consistently fought for the demands of its members and has been most outspoken in defending their rights.

On this day (10th Nov.), the youth of the world will meet in their thousands in their respective countries, to sing, dance, and play together in the wonderful atmosphere of "Peace and Friendship". In this joyous climate they will pledge their support for those-like us—who are oppressed and denied basic human rights. Their hands will stretch over the seven seas and clasp ours as brothers and sisters—believing in the only beautiful life—, when they sing in different tongues,

"One great vision unites us,
Trough remote be the lands of our birth".

Youth of the Transvaal! the Transvaal Youth Festival Committee calls upon you to show your solidarity with our bretheren, here and abroad. Youth of all races, colours, and creed; come and spend a festive day in sporting and cultural activities. Come together on the fertile field of sport, where the seeds of racial harmony, friendship, mutual understanding, and friendship are sown. Come together as youth to revel in the warm sunshine, to swim together, dance, and sing the songs that will inspre us to greater heights in our noble struggle for FREEDOM.
