

Moscow, ————— 27- VIII - 26.

My dear Vera.

I do not know if you are very anxious to hear from me, but as I owe you a letter it seems only right to pay the debt.

Although you have not written to tell me how you were getting along at School etc. but from your Mothers letters I can gather that you are trying your best which, believe me gives me great pleasure.

You may not realize it now, as you are unable to realize many other things in life, but in time it will all dawn on you.

Well, all about myself I have told in Mamas letter. It leaves me to say a few words how I fared during the 6 weeks of travelling through the USSR.
 I have gained much, seen much, was glad & sorrow. However it gave me an inside of life. I often wished
 I had you here to explain things.
 I could write a book if only I had sufficient time. Unfortunately I am always busy.

Now let us hope before long to meet them perhaps I will explain
 by you many things.

Write & tell me how you are faring. With love Papa
