Leshage son of Kgosi was chief after the death of his father Kgosi, in Marotholi or Boldfontein. He quarrelled with chief Malintsi of Basmatlako Tribe. Chief Leshage caught Malintsi but he set him free and their war was ended. And after that came Matebele, and the Matebele drove him out from Marotholi to the North. He joined with another Chief called Sebetwane and Sebetwane killed Chief Leshage and left his son with him.

Leshage son of Kgosi was not the heir in reignth. He was the son of the second wife of Chief Kgosi. Matlapeng was the heir of Kgosi but he was still a child after the death of his father. son then Leshaga of the second wife was big enough then he was Chief instead of Matlapeng. While they were driven by Matebele Matlapeng remained at Putfontein with his mother. In that some people came back to him and when he grown up he became Chief of them. He had two sons the first son Gaborone the younger Selumeli of the same mother.

Matlapeng removed and went to Inmulumane or Walfontein. He had Complianation of his ~~mother~~ wife who died in Putfontein. When he was residing in Inmulumane was found by the Dutch people when they came here in Transvaal.

The Dutch troubled great deal so he left went to Chief Sechele. While he was with Sech had bad friend with Sechele and he left him and settled at Ishonutshone, and he died in Ishonutshone.

XI

Gaborone the son of Matlapeng succeed the throne at Ishonutshone of his father.

When they seperated Gaborone and his little brother Selumeli. Selumeli wanted to go back to the old place where they were borned, so he left his brother Gaborone at Ishonutshone, But Gaborone did not like to come with his brother at the old place. He went to Mokuena till to day. and Selumeli still residing in Putfontein.
