"I have no other but a woman's reason: I think him so, because I think him so."
— Shakespeare.

THE "Zuid Afrikaanse Vrouwen Federatie" recently held its 11th annual Congress at the Administrative capital, under the chairmanship of Mrs. Jan Faure. Of course a gathering of Zuid Afrikaanse "Vrouwen" (or "Mannen" either) would be unnatural if, in the course of their deliberations, the Native and Colour questions did not repeatedly come into prominence; and the recent Congress of the above gathering was no exception to the rule. Two resolutions particularly call for observation, viz., (a) The separate conveyance of coloured passengers on trains; and (b) the exclusion of coloured persons from holding public offices—both carried.

With regard to Resolution (a) the Transvaal and Free State administrations, have long since inaugurated a system of separate accommodation by reserving compartments for Natives apart from the whites. In the superior compartments, however, the Native passenger has a greater grievance than his white fellow passengers. No sooner are the white compartments fairly full, then white passengers invade the coloured compartments and crush out the rightful occupants; and when the occupants give way to the intruder, the latter is not infrequently heard to curse the administration for conveying the Natives at all. A little toleration on the part of the whites will not be out of place in a mixed country like this. As regards Resolution (b), the "Federatie" should consistently have gone further and asked Mr. Hull to refuse to accept taxation from Natives if these are not to carry reciprocal benefits. The gravamen of the question is that a Kafir was recently enrolled as an attorney of Pretoria whilst the same Court had previously refused a similar application by a white lady. Perhaps the members of the "Federatie," (who have now become active suffragists and allied themselves with one of the great political parties) are not aware that "two wrongs do not make a right." They could scarcely expect justice at the hands of their men folk when they enforce their claims at the expense of the vested rights of coloured people. Perhaps they are not aware that the women of the antipodes fought just as actively for women's franchise. That the system is an established institution in Australia is not due to the Governments of those colonies. It was the Four Black members of the New Zealand Parliament who plumped for the enfranchisement of women, and New Zealand thus gave a lead to the colonies on this subject. Had there been no Native members in that Parliament the system, in the Australian Colonies, would still be in the sphere of "probable, yet unprecedented." It is a marvellous South African enigma that in the higher walks of life the colour bar tends to separate natural co-workers, whilst in the lower strata—the illicit liquor bazaar, the gambling den and the brothel—the same line wavers and disappears. The thinking Natives of the Transvaal, though unenlisted, are actively co-operating with Women's Guild and kindred associations to combat the social evil, which appears to be peculiar to that Province. And if "Vrouwen-Federaties" would not appreciate the unsolicited aid of the Natives in all matters that tend to make life worth living, the Natives on the whole would add "more power to their bat-pins."

Sub-Rosa.

A Berows correspondent writes us complaining about the conduct of the Government Surveyor up there. It appears that the Chief Khama sent three agents divisions under their respective leaders to fix up some boundaries. The Surveyor was a man of a most impulsive disposition, pointing his gun at the men, swearing at them, and killing big game, including wild ostrich heads which is a distinct infringement of the Laws and Regulations of Bechuanaland. This conduct the correspondent adds is "unbecoming as employed" the Government. This is a mere theory for under the system obtaining in the Protectorate a Government official can do almost anything. It is difficult to conceive what remedy a man has against such treatment in a semi-civilized country without a Judge.

The Native delegates who waited on Mr. Malan last week desire to thank Rev. R. Twala for the arrangements he made for their comfort. They particularly wish to thank Mr. and Mrs. Temba, Mrs. Johnson and Miss A. Bangani for the kind attention they gave the members of the delegation during their short stay at the Union Capital. Mr. W. Allan King had arranged to give them an afternoon at the Zoo. They stay being short and the weather being very wet this did not come off; but every member of the delegation was satisfied with the visit.

The Transvaal Native Affairs Dept. is as quiet as it was before Union—if not more so. The Natives of Nancefield Location sent in to the Johannesburg Branch the following statement of grievances, dated, Elliparuit, Aug. 1st 1910. To this they are still awaiting a reply:—

1. In reference to the interview we had on the 31st July 1910, we beg leave to submit to you the following grievances and requests, as a guide to you:—

(1). That all laws and regulations pertaining to Native Location have never been submitted to us the Council for approval or disapproval, nor in the language we know or understand.

(2). The turning of the Location boundaries into arable lands of the council and surrounding the Location with a wire fence has injured us, and that all previous privileges are now curtailed: viz:—

(a). Arable lands which were set apart for us;

(b). Grazing land for our stock, and regularly impounding our stock for trespass, and overcharging us from 5/- to 10/- per head on releasing them from the Council's servants. And a charge of 1/- for every half acre allotted to each standholder, which, during the time of Mr. Lloyd, was given free.

Those who paid the tax 1/- each are:—Miss Vanda, Mrs. Ninkela, Mrs. Zango, Mrs. Lina Panto, Mrs. Lusak, Comai, Mrs. Maggie Madole, Mrs. Emily Soole, Mrs. Nemoal, Mr. Gaa

gambling den and the brothel—the same line wavers and disappears. The thinking Natives of the Transvaal, though unenlisted, are actively co-operating with Women's Guild and kindred associations to combat the social evil, which appears to be peculiar to that Province. And if "Vrouwen-Federaties" would not appreciate the unsolicited aid of the Natives in all matters that tend to make life worth living, the Natives on the whole would add "more power to their bat-pins."

Solomon, Mrs. Sholana, Mrs. Abreman, Mrs. Jamma, Mrs. Lena, Mrs. M. B. Soatona, Mrs. Dnah Bontonga, Mrs. Mibana, and E. Cih.

(8). The very bad handling of W/Os and banks which are left exposed in the Location and regularly cleaned and leaking to the danger of the health of the inhabitants.

(9). The raising by the Council for arrears of rent of houses built by Natives—costing £50 to £100 or more to build—and the ultimate purchasing of them at public auction by the Council at the ridiculously low price of from 2/6 to 2/- or a little more, which are then rented to us at from 12/- to £2 per month. Business stands which are paid 7/6 for at Vrededorp cost here 34/- per month.

Altering the period of "final notice" from three months to less than a fortnight.

Refusing to reduce rents when the business, or the owner, has failed or ceased to carry on business, whilst these very buildings, after forfeiture by the Council are turned into dwelling places.

The Councils impartiality in allowing one individual to trade in the washboys' place, whilst excluding every other the Hawker traders from selling on that particular spot to the detriment of other traders.

Allowing white traders to trade in the Location free of license for dairy and business stands for which the Natives are charged a rent of 2/6 per annum in contravention of Native Locations Bye Law, Article 29, Chapter I, which reads: "No person other than a native native will trade in any Location."

(6). The very dangerous system of breaking doors which are locked during the absence of the owner and confiscation of all the household furniture and fixtures, and their being bought by the Council.

(6). Request for free Government Doctor and Chemist in the Location.

(7). The Railway carriage or trucks which we use are unfit and dangerous. Quadruped trucks extra 1/- charged anyone has entered the train late.

(8). Building permits. Refusing rights to improve old buildings by stating that there will be no compensation; and also of new buildings erected.

(9). Requests of opening four gates.

(10). The employment of inefficient policemen who do not know the nature of charge.

(11). The unassistance of the head staff when the crime is against the police, and the security of £50 whilst no security is required when police arrest people.

(12). The women's Petition is attached.—Yours truly, L. T. Mvabana, Secretary.

The Department will probably disclaim all responsibility for the disabilities of Natives on Municipal property. If one Bush boy in the employ of a Dutchman deserve the protection of the Department; it certainly follows that the same Department should guard jealousy the hundreds of thousands of people from wholesale oppression at the hands of relentless corporations.

Transvaal Natives.

Deputation to Lord Gladstone.

Yesterday His Excellency the Governor-General, Viscount Gladstone, received at Pretoria an important deputation from the Transvaal Native Organisation, consisting of the following members:—E. N. Mokohele (president), Rev. B. Twala, Chief Solomon Masepan, Chief Gaa Ketsana, Chief Thomas Makhela, and E. B. Obaka (assistant secretary). The deputation, after having been presented to His Excellency by Mr. E. J. Stanley (private secretary), presented an address, which was read by Mr. E. B. Obaka as follows:

The Address.
To His Excellency the Rt. Hon. Viscount Gladstone, etc.

Your Lordship,—We, representatives of the civilized Natives of the Transvaal in the name and on behalf of the hundreds of the Transvaal Native Organisation and the Native population generally, desire to tender to Your Excellency a loyal and hearty welcome on the occasion of your assumption of office as Governor-General of the Union of South Africa, to the population of which we Natives furnish a large numerical majority.

We beg to request Your Excellency to send to His Majesty King George the Fifth and the Royal Family the auspicious of His Majesty's visit to the Transvaal Province for the irrevocable loss which the Empire has sustained. No community in the South continent laments more deeply than His Majesty's dark race the loss of his beloved father and our beloved and respected late Sovereign, King Edward VII.

We further respectfully request Your Excellency to carry to His Majesty King George the Fifth our loyalty and fond affection to his Imperial Throne.

Your Excellency, we fully realise the magnitude of the work which you have been called upon to perform, and we do not hesitate to express the conviction that South Africa, particularly the Transvaal Province, is a land of many difficult problems which require a statesman of more than ordinary strength and far-seeing. The two white races who have striven for supremacy for many years past have learned to understand each other, with the result that the Union of South Africa is now an accomplished fact.

We appreciate heartily the magnificent efforts of your predecessors, Lord Milner and Lord Selborne, and their untiring endeavours which have brought the Union to a practical existence in so far as the whites are concerned. We are ever obedient, and our memories to the fact that they look so large and broad an interest in the so-called Native question. From noble spirits they viewed the liberal principles of a wise and generous Government. We believe that the seed of justice and right which they have sown in South Africa will one day produce the ripe fruit of contentment which, as the result of the Union, shall feed all sections of the community, irrespective of colour.

If it may be permitted on this occasion, we would like to express to Your Excellency our high appreciation of many much maligned public men, known as negro-phobes by a certain section of the white community who have fearfully advocated, from logical and humanitarian points of view, an amelioration of certain conditions adversely affecting the progress of the Native races. We admire and respect the courage which induced them, in the face of many difficulties, to stand up for the wrong that lacks assistance. For the good that they could do.

We do believe and trust that the Union Government will face the Native question without fear or prejudice, and that their efforts will result in a solution of the problem satisfactory to both the white and black subjects of His Majesty King George the Fifth.

Senate Representation.

Your Excellency, we are aware that you will shortly be called upon to nominate eight members of the Senate to guard the interests of the Natives, and we would respectfully and humbly beg you to consider the merits and past records of the undermentioned gentlemen in whom we have every confidence:—

- Transvaal: Messrs. William Hoeksema, William Windham, Vere Steyn, W. Allan King, E. B. Schiedel, Rev. E. Creutz, J. S. Marwick and Malt Marais.
- Cape Colony: Colonel Stanford, Sir Hiram Berry, and Hon. W. P. Schreiner.
- Natal: Colonel Roydon, C.B., and Sir David Hunter.

Orange Free State: Ex-President Steyn and Mr. Dewdney Drew.

Basutoland: Mr. E. C. Stoley, C.M.G.

In conclusion, we sincerely trust that your Excellency will realise that in submitting suggestions we have no desire to presume on the good judgment of His Most Gracious Majesty's representative; but the lack of uniformity which has characterised the administration of our affairs in the various Colonies comprising British South Africa in the past has led us to hope that we may look with certainty to the adaptation of the best laws from each Colony to the enormous Native population now ascribed by the Union Government, and with this end in view we would respectfully request your Excellency to... The Union of South Africa was observed as a day of humiliation by the congregations of many Churches throughout the Cape Province.

Lord Gladstone's Reply

His Excellency, in reply, said: Gentlemen, I have received with great satisfaction the expression of loyalty to King George V. and your genuine sympathy with him and with the British nation on the death of King Edward VII.

OUR INFORMATION BUREAU—We beg to thank the Government Printer for the receipt of a Copy of the latest Blue Book on Native Affairs; and the Town Clerk of Bloemfontein for a Copy of the Mayor's Minutes.

PERSONALIA—The Lord Bishop of Pretoria spent the last week in September at Potchefstroom, presiding over the Diocesan Missionary Conference, which was largely attended by Missionaries, the Native clergy, &c.

Appeal for Funds to O.R.C. Native Association Branches.

THE—We instructed by the Executive Committee of the O.P.S. Native Congress that you be good enough to let this appeal to your branch. The Executive Committee has decided to send deputations to interview the Prime Minister, Minister for Education, and Minister for Native Affairs of the Union of South Africa.

T. M. MAPIKELA, General Sec. O.P.S.N.A., Box 83, Bloemfontein, O.P.S.

Advocate Heary Burton, K.C., M.L.A., Minister for Native Affairs.

The Union of South Africa was observed as a day of humiliation by the congregations of many Churches throughout the Cape Province. It was feared that T'aranal traditions would control the policy of the Government on Native Affairs.

- 1. Appointment of Mr. Burton.
2. Release of Diniselo and the gift to him, of a farm.
3. Proclamation of all Government Notices through the three Native papers in the Union.
4. Abolishment of the "Bibale" System in Natal, under which Zulu Chiefs and Headmen were each compelled to supply the Government with a given number of labourers every year.

OUR INFORMATION BUREAU—We beg to thank the Government Printer for the receipt of a Copy of the latest Blue Book on Native Affairs; and the Town Clerk of Bloemfontein for a Copy of the Mayor's Minutes.

THE NATIVE COLLEGE.

SOME of our European neighbors... are in great fears regarding... the Native College. They think... that knowledge is strength; and...
wishing—in their own interest...
they think—to keep the Natives...
perpetually in subjection they believe... that to achieve their end, they must...
keep such an institution like the...
College away from him. The fallacy... in this reasoning lies in the belief... that the mere fact of the establish-... ment of a Native College necessarily... means that every one of the five... million able South Africans will...
beigh presto, have a College educa-... tion, and be thus a serious competi-... tor to the white community. Well, were...
this possible it would be a miracle. It... has not happened in other countries...
and there is not the slightest fear...
of its taking place here. A Bloom-... fontein contemporary is ever at pains... to call attention to statistics of...
Native and white children in...
Schools in the Cape Province—show-... ing a large preponderance of the... former in the enrolment and point-... ing to the fact as an angry portend... for the Europeans. If it knew that... these figures are not of to-day, but...
have been so for decades past, our...
"Friend" would possess his soul in... perfect tranquility. Except in rare... circumstances, the education of the...
Native child does not produce the... results that the education of the...
European produces. The Native has...
with the same amount of education...
that is given him, so much leeway, so...
socially and economically, to make...
up, that the comparison of the results...
is quite out of the question, and will...
be so we believe for years and years...
to come. For what, then, is the...
College required, the ignorant oppo-... nent of Native education will readily... ask? And our ready reply is, it is... required to fully qualify the hand-... ful few who are to labour among the...
mass of their people as uplifters—...
Missionaries, Teachers and Leaders... along right lines. For the danger of... the country, both for white and black...
is in the unenlightened Native masses... being led by blind leaders, or worse...
still, by leaders with mental eyes so...
insufficiently opened as only to be... able to see "men like trees." The... dangers of half education, long...
postulated in regard to other com-... munities, equally apply to the...
Natives also. In this connection we... cannot linger too long in pondering...
the Great Master's dictum regarding... the blind leading the blind with the...
inevitable appalling catastrophe of... both falling into the abyss. The... institution of the College, then, in... view of these and other facts, is... an urgent public necessity, both in...
the interests of white and black in... this country. And so convinced have... been the Natives of this that they...
have already begun to send a stream...
of such as were ready for the better...
education to fit them to labour in...
uplifting their countrymen that they...
have sent numbers to other countries;...
and will resort to this more largely...
in the future if the one institution... they desire here is denied them. We... have no reason to think that the... statement who compose the Union...
Government will be so short-sighted...
as not to perceive these and other...
considerations, and do themselves...
leading credit by leading and directing... the argument that commonsense and...
wise policy at once commend and...
command.—Ame.

KIMBERLEY, OCTOBER 29, 1910.

The Ed. Hon. C. J. Rhodes—A Monograph and a Reminiscence by the late Sir T. E. Fuller, K.C.M.G. Pp. xii+276. London, Longmans, Green and Co., 1210, 6s.

EVERY thinker who is interested in the spread of British Dominion in Africa should feel indebted to the late Cape Agent-General for having just a few months before his lamented death left us a heritage in the form of the above work, which is a well-written portrayal of the life and work of a very great man, whose services to the Empire has excited the admiration of foreign rivals, Sir Thomas just had enough time to read a few encomiums on his literary attainments than death claimed him, fortunately for us, after the "Monograph and Reminiscence" were already in the hands of Longmans, the Publishers.

South Africans will on reading this book appreciate the valuable information which would have been lost to the public had the deceased gentleman delayed its compilation and been overtaken by death before issuing it, and they will have on hesitation in wishing a sweet repose to the author of the monograph under review.

Coming to the hero of the Reminiscence we often wonder if the tourists who speed past here, in the bi-weekly trains de-luxe, to see the Victoria Falls (a point 990 miles north of Kimberley and 1640 miles north of Cape-town) and return in a week after seeing interesting places in the interior including the Colours' last resting place on the Matoppos, ever dream of the magnitude, and benefit to civilisation, of Rhodes's Schemes, not the least important of them being the Cape to Osiro line fast nearing completion. A few pages of the book will give the reader an idea of the work of this most remarkable of Empire builders. The Union of South Africa was another of his great dreams which he has not lived to see, but scarcely a "dream" of which he has personally laid the foundation, has failed to materialise. Indeed, if Rhodes came to South Africa and saw the ripening of the fruits of which he planted the germ he would declare that his associates and the great fortune he left behind had faithfully carried out his programmes beyond his most sanguine expectations. Territorial pioneers and commercial men and missionaries, who all strive to enlighten the dark continent, will find especial interest in this book.

The political aspirant in the South African Union will find much that is instructive in the political diplomacy of Cecil Rhodes as Premier. The Native population also claim a number of pages in this work. Rhodes started his political career with the utmost indifference as to Native interests in fact in a division which took place in 1884 we find his name among those members of the Cape House of Assembly who were opposed to the Native Franchise; but to-day the Natives claim equal opportunities on the strength of a dictum laid down by Rhodes, some 14 years later, viz., "Equal rights for all civilised men South of the Zambesi." Again, this very same politician discovered after years of parliamentary experience that the safety of South Africa lay in granting the dark races of the sub-continent a measure of self-government (pp. 171-179). He commenced with the Glen Grey District a system which extended into the Transkei, where the Transkeian Councilors of Native delegates, presided over by the Chief Magistrate levy taxation for necessary local purposes to the extent of £50,000 annually. If Rhodes saw all this, then his ashes should surely rest in peace. Natives had a bitter complaint against his earlier parliamentary life but the following extract from a speech of his, delivered in the House (if we remember aright) in 1898, should serve to show the striking effect of personal experience which converted his Native and coloured question: "Both sides of the House are quite clear upon the black question. I have had some doubts about the Bond, but was delighted when Mr. Van Der Walt said that the one thing he was hoping for was to see Jabavu sitting side by side with him in the House. The pure Native in Transvaal voted with the Bond, although the Progressives had declared their programme of equal rights for every civilised man south of the Zambesi. By that we mean that any man, provided they can write their name, place of residence, and occupation, and that they are workers, and possessed of some property, quite irrespective of colour, would be entitled to these rights. But the Bond has gone one better still. They are hungering for Tongo Jabavu in the House, and the Bond gained its present position in the House by the support of the pure Native voters. As to the Coloured people, I owe them a deep debt of obligation for the work they have done for me in Rhodesia. It was they who, with their corps, stormed the fastnesses of Matabeleland. They did so not once, but repeatedly, and I regard them as one of the great sources of prosperity in this country. Changing from the Matoppos to my fruit farm, I have ascertained from Californians, with whom I have discussed the question of labour, that they have nothing to equal in California the Coloured man as a labourer. That is my contribution to the position of the Coloured men in this country, and I am thankful to take the opportunity to make such a statement." Pp. 182-188.

It will pay our readers, who have not as yet done so, to purchase and read the book.

Sub-Rosa.

The R.M. of Stockton, in reporting on the collection of taxes in his district, says: "To the shame of the Europeans I have to state that the Natives are far more punctual and less troublesome in the payment of their taxes than they are." If a Provincial Collector were to make a similar, his report would be a revelation.

MAILING GUIDE.—The New Post Office Guide for the last quarter of the year is just out. One naturally expected the time-tables in this official authority to be up to date but strange to say they are but a repetition of previous issues and do not include the alterations in the departures and arrivals of mails—changes occasioned by the alteration of the passenger train service at the beginning of October. In that respect a holder of this quarter's "Guide" is as out-of-time as those who hold last year's "Copies."

Natal is bitterly disappointed at the action of the Governor-General-in-Council who gave them Mr. Moor as their Senator. Another proof that it is impossible to expect a person, however wise to think and act for another. Mr. Moor is supposed to be one of the four Senators who represent Native interest. If the Zulus had been consulted in the matter they would promptly have told the Governor-General-in-Council that Moor is an "opportunist." But hear the Natal Advertiser: "That Mr. Moor should accept this senatorship on the plea that he is to represent the Natives, and not Natal, makes the position worse instead of better. It reduces Natal's representation to a kind of a 9 it should stand at 10, even if these four Native representatives be set apart, and it is the reverse of dignified for a man, rejected as a representative of his white fellow-citizens, to creep into public life as a representative of the Natives." And the Advertiser should have added "against the wishes of those Natives."

Here, There and Everywhere.

More than once the question of joining Rhodesia to the Union was spoken of on election platforms—and mostly without thought of one point among those evoked into white calting into the public mind. Natives in Rhodesia are entitled to the franchise. This fact will probably surprise most people south of that Colony, and not a few there too. It happened easily enough, and without consideration. When the territory was occupied by the Chartered Company, and the rifle was being laid down for the pen of the scrip-writer, it was clear that some laws were necessary. Accordingly the Cape laws were taken over en bloc. Among these was the unconsidered bribe of the Native franchise, and it stands to this day as the law of Rhodesia. So that the two countries led by Cecil Rhodes have legalised the dictum, yet to be analysed, "Equal rights for all civilised men." In Rhodesia a handful of Natives have been enrolled citizens in virtue of this phrase, and the list grows longer by the unnumbered addition of one or two names as the years go on. If any Government in the South African Union dared to consider the Native question as a whole, Rhodesia might have useful guide to action before she is too far committed to any course. For the present it is instructive to remember that that in the Northern as well as the Southern extremity of the Union, the law runs in favour of an "educated" Native vote. The Appellate Division of the Supreme Court has now concluded its first session since the Cape Union. It has now heard appeals in all the four provinces of the Union. Five appeals of the first instance, and five have been dismissed on costs of appeal and of the Court below, and five have been dismissed on costs of appeal and of the Court below. In all the appeals but one, reversals of decisions, the Appellate Court has reversed the decisions of the Court below. The reversals are of the Appellate Court of Cape Colony, of the Appellate Court of Natal, and the full Court of the Free State. The five confirmations are those of Judges Hertzog, van der Merwe, and Watermeyer, of the Appellate Court of Natal, and Watermeyer, of the Appellate Court of the Free State (two). With one exception, none of the cases involved any difficult or delicate questions of law; the exception is the case of Boyd v. Stittford and Co., by Judge Hopley, whose judgment was confirmed. It is true that in all the cases the Judges of Appeal gave reasons for their judgments, but this was probably done as much to aid in the point of law as to a desire to do full justice to the judgments of the Courts against which appeals were laid. It is all the more remarkable that 50 per cent of the judgments should have been reversed. Those who have long advocated the creation of a final Court of Appeal for South Africa have now the satisfaction of seeing the fruits of their efforts and of appreciating the work done by the new Court. With all due deference to the Courts whose decisions have been reversed, the result of appeal cases is shown clearly that a Court of final review was urgently needed.

Rev. A. J. Wooley had a very anxious experience in returning from Kimberley (says the Northern News). He informs us that as he could not sleep he got up when the train arrived at Brussels and sat on the balcony of the moon with another passenger, who had been driven out of another compartment owing to the presence of two drunken Europeans; when before a Tiger King and Vryburg a Native woman came on to the balcony from the third class carriage, and pursued by a half mad German Native man, Mr. Wooley stopped his crossing, whereupon he drew his knife and threatened the rev. gentleman. It appears that the Natives had a quantity of liquor with them, which they brought from Kimberley, where there seems to be little or no restriction upon their obtaining same. An official on the train stated that he had removed a quantity of liquor from their compartment during the journey, and that they had done very troublesome all the way. Whilst this trouble was proceeding, fortunately the guard came along, when he was also threatened with a knife. Some better protection for the travelling public should be provided, or the consequences may be very serious.

KIMBERLEY, NOVEMBER 6, 1910.

Secretary bondsmen know ye not WHO would be free themselves must strike the blow - BYRON.

WHAT ails the white folks of the "Free" State anyway? Their anxiety will excite pity rather than fear. They are living in constant dread that they might wake up one morning to find their Native neighbours happy. God Almighty has decreed that "By the sweat of thy brow shalt thou eat bread," but our "Free" friends would even deny the Native the right to work. They say t at their "Free" State is a white man's country, and work is the monopoly of the whites. Recently they (at any rate some of them) complained bitterly against the growing combination of Cape Coloured men, Malays and Kafirs under a Malay doctor. Yet they are by their consistent and persistent policy of ostracism, which is meted out evenly to each, driving these coloured sections of the community into the racial combination known as the A.P.O., for even a worm will turn when trod upon.

Early this year a Native applied for a dealer's licence on the Thaba Nchu Reserve. His application was recommended by the District Council; and as the Council, presided over by the District Magistrate, is a legally recognised body like the Transkeian Councils, the applicant took it for granted that it was all right, purchased his goods and prepared to open on the 1st of July. Up to the present his licence has been neither refused nor accepted. Meantime the white traders of Thaba Nchu—none of whom are trading on locations—are, we understand, opposing the application. A few rogues with white skins have now and then opened stores at Thaba Nchu and disappeared after contracting debts with various people. No one knows better than the white traders of Thaba Nchu that the Native applicant here referred to is not likely to disappear like a mist; but that he will stay and pay 20s. in the pound with compound interest as a penalty for the colour of his skin. Yet they oppose him merely on the ground of colour. The Natives have the remedy in their own hands. They should boycott the traders who are so down on their colour, and the ungrateful white traders of Thaba Nchu would gather some sense very soon.

Sub-Rosa.

The District of Barkly West is still up to its usual reputation. An Indian named Thomas is under arrest at Barkly, charged with the murder of a contempt named Fischer, and the attempt to murder Mr. M. S. Thomas of Kimberley, whom it is said, Thomas wounded in three places with pistol shots. This happened in the evening on the same day that two Natives were hanged for the murder of a store keeper in the same district.

THE BLACK PANT.—The peace of Kimberley has been seriously disturbed by a strange "sundae" who it is said deliberately incited down a white schoolmistress in the Public Gardens in broad daylight. These cannot be any doubt that the perpetrator of the evil deed is a member of the Amalote gang of the Witwatersrand, which was dispersed by the Police last month when two gangs of 17 and 4 were caught and sentenced to various terms of imprisonment; and as they were known to number 40 all told, it is not improbable that some of them found their way here.

Last year, three of this gang got as far West as Bechuanaland and made things hum around Mafeking. To the joy of everybody they were secured between 3 and 4 a.m. one morning though not until several revolver shots were exchanged between them and the police. They only stayed a few days in prison then found their way somehow through the stone walls of the new gaol and continued their depredations for a long time before they were brought before the Circuit Judge. Impudent daylight assaults on white ladies are not at all peculiar to the Kimberley Native and when this fellow is finally captured it will probably be found that scared by the recent onslaughts on his fraternity on the part of the Rand police, he has migrated from there to Kimberley.

The Natives of the Witwatersrand have a bitter complaint against this class of criminal whom they divide into three classes—the Amalote (Moonlighter) who wields, said to be and rob unmercifully pedestrians and cyclists, the Njigwango, who shoot, stab and kill, and the pickpocket, who plies his trade mainly in crowded trains in broad daylight at main stations at the expense of peaceful passengers.

The peaceful Band Native complains that the authorities are responsible for the existence of these criminals. The Native Affairs Department employs as policemen only barbarous Natives without a grain of moral sense, who, so far from stepping crime, make life unendurable for the civilised Native, who is regarded by their kind with a certain amount of jealousy; and there exist a kind of guinea between black and white, the low class police boys (who walk barefooted) against the less abiding Natives.

Worsey farther that the C.E.D. employ ignorant Bechuanas and Chagwags who besides acting as ordinary law breakers, conceal illicit liquor dealers, mostly women with whom they run a social order of the lowest grade. They say that crime will never be reduced until the State Departments in Transvaal dignify their present half dressed and ignorant constables, and attach their Natives to the Police force, who will join with the objects of detesting crime and bringing it to justice instead of flourishing on it. And as the local authorities, across by the Garden's outrage, are taking steps they cannot do better than devote some attention to the phase of the situation and thus tackle the evil at its very source—in Johannesburg.

Mr. J. R. Morakogomo wishes to have placed on record the following monetary gifts made to him on the occasion of his recent marriage to Miss Molekane of Bloemfontein: Chief Justice Sir Andries Prinsloo, £1; Mr. Justice Pavane, £1; Dr. Ward, £1; The Registrar of the Supreme Court, Bloemfontein, 10/-; Assistant Registrar, 5/-; Chief Clerk, 5/-; Messrs. Fauré, Back, Giedman, Farther and Sayman 5/- each; International Native Society, 30/-; Young men of St. John's Wesleyan Church, 15/-; For these gifts Mr. Morakogomo naturally desires to return thanks.

WILKINGHAT.—The German Soldiers, who shot down 18 Natives and wounded 18 of the recruits which left the Transkei to build their Railways, attribute the epidemics to the existence of the Ethiopian Church in Cape Colony. We have had a similar excess during the last Damaraland War. How the existence of a Native Church in the Eastern Provinces could possibly influence white men on the West Coast, to commit the crime of murder is one of those things which as Lord Dunsany would say, "no fallah can understand."

"AFRICA FOR THE BLACKS"—This is a mischievous cry which rightly excites indignation but, as Dr. Robinson pointed out to a Natal Mercury reporter last month, there was another and more mischievous cry—more pernicious because it is uttered by educated white men in authority—viz., "South Africa a white man's country," which virtually means that it is the intention of the whites to perpetually keep black South Africans in a state of oppression. And authors of this phrase must put a bridle on their expressions and not continue to use language which is calculated to wound.

Personalia.

CHIEF KHAKA.—At the Congregational Church Union, several ministers paid compliments to the noted Bechuana Chief, one minister describing him as the finest Christian gentleman he had met, black or white, in South Africa.

PICANIN KIMBLE.—The Premier Mine on the other side of Pretoria has the most popular Compound in the Transvaal. Mr. P. Mitchell manages the compound and the labourers and their Native ministers write very well of him. This mine never employed Chinese and it deserves every support.

SIR RICHARD STURROCK, K.C., K.C.M.G., K.C.V.O.—The High Commissioner for South Africa is visiting his Native land. We voice the feelings of the Natives of the sub-continent in tendering him a hearty welcome, and expressing the hope that he will on his return to England carry away pleasant recollections of his visit to South Africa. Welcome the first High Commissioner for the Union of South Africa! Welcome to the first British Legal Adviser of the Transvaal Colony.

Rev. Dr. Robinson, M.P., addressed the Natives of Bloemfontein last Saturday night. A translation of a report of the function appears in the vanguard. Mr. J. Tangi Jabavu, Editor of Tangi, joined our Editor at Bloemfontein last week to attend a meeting at Thaba Nchu. The former was guest of Rev. J. D. Gonyane and the latter of Mr. T. I. Magotho and Mr. N. N. Nkomo. Mr. and Mrs. Magotho came to spend the week-end in Thaba Nchu. Mr. J. Magotho, the Natives' General Secretary of the South Africa Native Convention, who was also expected, failed to turn up owing to indisposition which it was hoped he will soon get over.

THE BISHOP'S FACT.—The bishop of Pretoria has a characteristic way of describing his experiences. In his letter in the current issue of the "Kingdom" the "Shoona" magazine, he describes his difficulty at his initial confirmation service in the Becho language. Since last I have been in the Waterkroon district, and also in the Lydenburg district. Archbishop Fuller accompanied me on the former trip, as we had to drive some thirty-six miles from Waterkroon to a Native confirmation. I confirmed about sixty candidates and made my first attempt at confirming in Zulu. It was the irony of fate that the actual words of confirmation should begin with a Q which I partly had on a beginner. I persevered, though the Archbishop assured me that my facial contortions were too dreadful for words! I believe they were absolutely genuine for those who saw any way.

- THE CANNEL.—The arrangements for the temporary accommodation of the Ministers are as follows:—General Botha, 75, Parliament Street. General Smuts, Minister of Interior, 75, Parliament Street. Dr. O'G. Gubbins, Minister without Portfolio, 75, Parliament Street. Hon. F. S. Malan, Minister of Education, 73, Parliament Street. Hon. B. Burton, Minister of Native Affairs, 81, Parliament Street. Hon. J. W. van der Merwe, Minister of Railways and Harbours, 83, Parliament Street. Hon. I. C. Hall, Minister of Finance, Treasury Buildings. General Hertzog, Minister of Justice, 1, Walk Street. Hon. A. Fisher, Minister of Lands, Hoops of Parliament, (north-west portion of basement). Hon. D. P. de V. Graaf, Minister of Public Works, G.P.O. The Secretary for Agriculture will be accommodated at 57, Parliament Street.

PARLIAMENT.

CONSOLIDATION of laws and statutes will more or less be the work of the present, and probably of a succession of Sessions of the Parliament which has just begun its sittings under Table Mountain. And all must wish it every success in the stupendous task. It is not likely that the Native or Dutch, or any other question that Racialists would like to discuss will come before the House. Even the ardent spirits who would engage in the mischievous and profitless discourse on the different Race, of which the people of this country are composed, do not go so far as to emphasise directly the existence of an English question, save in so far as they are jealous of the Dutch. But here the struggle is on the basis of prima inter pares; and these two being both represented in the House may each be relied upon to well look after itself. We have hopes, however, that the rubbing of shoulders in Parliament will get rid of the singularities and angularities on which the Racialist thrives. Thus the Dutch and English question may be left to solve themselves in the favouring atmosphere of the Legislature. The only outstanding subject is the Native Question. In the absence of the Native himself its discussion would naturally be postponed; perhaps the world will not be the feature of the matter. The fact that the Parliament for the first time in which representatives from every part of South Africa meet together is the most unfavourable to the debating of the Native Question across the floor of the House. For on the one hand, there must be gathered for the first time many representatives from the Cape who have had their great debates on this question years ago; come in close quarters with the eyes; look facts in the face, and found by experience that it was a mere bogey to frighten simple men and children with; that in the last resort the so-called Native Question was a myth—the creation of hotly imaginations of men possessed with fears, themselves the product of ignorance; and that the sum of the whole thing is simply to act justly, fairly and squarely by the Native, just as one would by the English, by the Dutch and by any other human being on God's earth—never mind whether he be Native, Dutch or English. On the other hand, there come new men from Natal, the Transvaal and the Orange Free State who have never closely and seriously discussed the Native Question, but have thought it a thorny thing which like all other thorny things, for example the prickly pear post, is best fenced off to be tackled at some convenient season, or chopped, hacked and heaped together to dry before fire is applied. To approach the so-called Native question then in these circumstances would be most unsatisfactory and disastrous to those consulting the problem. And South African statesmen did something worthy of statesmanship in decreeing a close session on the discussion of the question; and the Ministry showed great wisdom and perspicacity when they decided not to make a party question of our people, and, for that matter, of any other people. Thus, then, we may all look forward to the Session to be opened by His Royal Highness the DUKE OF CONNAUGHT next Friday with hope and confidence, becoming a Parliament so royally and worthily inaugurated.—Imro.

DR. MUIR'S OBSESSION.

THE Report of the Cape Superintendent-General of Education just issued is notable for its tendency to date educational progress in this country from the time of the writer's accession to office. Many think that that epoch marks the beginning of the end in true education, and of crum and shang. That they are not singular let the following from a brilliant article in the South African News speak for itself:—"Dr. MUIR describes the struggle for educational improvement in a closing passage which is both picturesque and pathetic. It illustrates the same point of view as is represented by the astonishing occurrence of dating the beginning of educational progress in the year when the writer entered upon the scene. The year 1891 marks no epoch in the history of Cape education, and it is not in our opinion a commendable innovation for officials, however exalted, to import autobiographical colour into official records of the work of their departments. There are many causes for the expansion of the last nineteen

Sub-Rosa

King George has sent a letter to the young King of Uganda expressing sympathy with his people in connection with the execution of the Oubald.

NATIVE TAXATION.—Mr. Henderson recently told Baxter that the Native of South Africa received from their Government as much in aid of their education one-sixth of the total sum of their contribution towards the general revenue.

According to the Livingstone Mail, a rather amusing state of affairs appears to exist in the Belgian Congo just now, one of the most notable features being the huge Native Police force they have collected.

Speaking at the Cape Town Chess Club's banquet to the visiting players in the South African Championship Tournament, Mr. J. W. Quinn, Union M.L.A. for Tryaverville, declared that O.T. was ought to have been the capital of the U.ia books and embolden large sums. Yet no one has ever suggested that white people should no longer be educated Higher Up-Country.

The Criminal Sessions opened in Salisbury last month before Mr. Justice Watermeyer, Mr. O. H. Troopold, the Attorney-General, prosecuting.

The Native who were brought on a charge of burning grass, pleaded not guilty at the Police Court, and said they had acted under the advice of their masters. They were acquitted.

On Thursday a Native who was riding on a wagon laden with cement for the new Government buildings, lost his seat and fell to the ground.

Mr. Lane, Government Veterinary Surgeon, has returned from Kalomo to the "Pala," having selected some fine young slaughter cattle and cows for the forthcoming Royal visit.

GARDENING.—His Royal Highness the Duke of Connaught and party will visit the Bechuanas Chiefs and their people here on the 24th instant.

LIVINGSTONE.—Kafir troops anticipate reaping a glorious harvest on the arrival of Chief Lewatla and Letia when it is understood, are being accompanied by a suite of over six hundred followers from the Baro and Shebete Districts.

According to the Livingstone Mail, a rather amusing state of affairs appears to exist in the Belgian Congo just now, one of the most notable features being the huge Native Police force they have collected.

Bechuanaland Affairs.

A PROSPEROUS AND CONTENTED PEOPLE.

There was issued yesterday, by the Colonial Office, the report for 1909-10 of Mr. May, Government Secretary of the Bechuanaland Protectorate.

South Africa Company in the three blocks of land held by them as private individuals. This represents the first direct contribution to the revenue of the Protectorate from the land in question.

The first case heard was that in which a Native house-boy was charged with the crime of rape committed on a white woman at Umhali.

The Natives who were brought on a charge of burning grass, pleaded not guilty at the Police Court, and said they had acted under the advice of their masters. They were acquitted.

The Public Holidays' Bill.

The Christian Express expresses the feelings of a very great majority of His Majesty King George's South African subjects of all colours.

Such holidays are signs of national sentiment, and are intended to call to mind events in the past or present history of a country which have in them, for all sections of the people, a message of hope and encouragement for the future.

The other error is equally thoughtless, the adoption of Dingana's day as a national holiday. We protested against this suggestion when it was first put forward, and now that the proposal is being seriously considered by the Government, we renew our protest still more earnestly.

Native feeling in the matter does not seem to have been in the least considered. Dingana was not a typical Native chief.

character in their history, should be singled out for special abhorrence of their European fellow citizens.

"We have, however, great hopes that the Union Parliament will amend the unfortunate Bill. All that is needed is to substitute the King's birthday for Dingana's day."

Quite so! What is the fun of a holiday on the 16th when you are going to have two more on the 25th and 26th of the same month? We must point out that Her late Majesty Victoria's birthday was observed by the Republics of the old Free State, the Government must admit that in leaving out the King's birthday they are committing "a serious error of omission."

UP FROM SLAVERY.

During his recent visit to England Dr. Booker Washington was accorded a worthy recognition by a distinguished and widely representative company at lunch, and subsequently addressed the Political Committee of the National Liberal Club.

Provincial Councils.

The usually well-informed Cape Town correspondent of the Bloemfontein Friend writes—Some weeks ago a statement was promulgated to the effect that the annual payment to members of the Provincial Councils would be £300.
