Sir

I am in receipt of your letter for ~~which~~ which I thank you. I believe I have every hope of succeeding in Durban. I have today sent the I.C.U in Durban the sum of £20 to hire the Hall for meetings and social entertainment. As I told you I was continuing the lease of another Hall but I failed to get through because it was out of town, after paying out some money.

Sir

I am in receipt of your letter for ~~which~~ which I thank you. I believe I have every hope of succeeding in Durban. I have today lent the I. C. U in Durban the sum of £20 to hire the Hall for meetings and social entertainment. As I told you I was continuing the lease of another Hall but I failed to get through because it was out of town after paying out some money. This as you know being illegal will you pay him in line of notice or let him work his notice time to avoid unnecessary further anticipated misunderstanding

Yours Sincerely,

W. G. Chapman
