Rev "AL146"

GOVERNMENT DECISION ON COLOURED AND INDIAN REFERENDAM

The successful campaigns of the UDF and other progressive organisations against the goverment new deal is an immediate cause for the decision not to call referenda for the two affected national groups.

There is no doubt that our people would have voted overwhelmingly against new constitution in the referendam.

This new decision heralds the dictatorship which will continue to be excersised upon these two national groups under the new constitution act. and particularly provisions of section 37 of that act.

All that remains for our people now, is the UDF million signature campaign which provides the only viable expression of their rejection of the new deal.
