I met him again at Usteridge, in Jan 1946.

We had had little air mail & were awfully in want.

for hostel plan at FH?
Hornafrost House
- 1 of 4 houses.

It was a period when of that was ready to make it were felt. We had arg like AHO for col, N-C, & AHC.

for I was in a col brig school. I used to read papers for the col leaders - like "Workers' Voice" for the leaders who belonged to the Col. Independence.

We met at the station.
He sat down on a bench. I had to bring in the dinner.
He would answer me & then advert to sports.

My intention was to go to the school & spend the weekend write him <sup>perhaps</sup> during <sup>the evening</sup> ~~the day~~. But I was so disappointed in his response that I felt I had go back home.

When I used to see him about this in subsequent years he used to laugh at me.
I say he should write his text & dismiss cheap politics with me.

So I left him at about 5 o'clock & went back to the i. d. quit.

His subject i. pol. began when he studied next administration in Ft. H.

we met up again, ± 2 weeks late, i. Feb 47, at Ft. H. we had both passed again. He got a bit class.

we enrolled for a same course: Engle, Kara, Hutsig.
He wanted to do geography.

~~Ad. course I.~~ He passed at end of a year, also had up in geography.

July, in 1944

~~July 44~~

Was this at start of year?

In 1947 we had Frederic's review, but at Merley House, where we were, where we show him to be an expert. Most of a chap knew him, from Halderson, and for his brilliant & for they knew he was an eloquent speaker. The days from Lovell also knew him.

There was an election & he was down.

He spoke very well but it & names he had somebody it enraged him for the whole students. He had the been of it stupidity or some of words he has lost respect for a degree we Regan wonder. At the for his words for speaking. After been to him, invariably, Regan just arose & for it he was pumbed by a student body at the depth was made to spend about a week sleep in the student bath room

what sort of

He kept on to floor - for dancing to camel & old women but they also had a object for him, but the demand is too heavy.

M. Malangabi, was seen 1 day tippling for the barman to bring him a cup of coffee he felt sorry for his plight.

Eventually he came out but he did not withdraw the share.

as time went on he made a mark, but on the behalf of the student body. until at the end of the year a speaker was wanted to represent the fathers. He was chosen by the whole student body to speak on their behalf.

use of the
that was?

The end of year:

lectures well & about him.
The hats among them dubbed him an "agitator" & wanted him out of FH.

He said in his speech: it ~~govt~~ ~~to~~ ~~this~~ ~~country~~ ~~be~~ ~~spoke~~ about & govt of country being in the hands of a few nobles & manufacturers who claimed to be the champions & defenders of white civilization, a civilization from which they had fled during the Great Trek.

Some lectures took exception to this. On Britany Prof. Prof. Chapman, (late at Rhodes as dean of new students - retired secretly) He was quoted Chapman who used to say this during his lectures.

Prof Merring (deceased) & another took exception to the way he was treated & got put through his lectures. backed him.

'Full chops sld go overseas & be named 'isratty'

That was in October. But Rev. <sup>was</sup> notly happened. except Prof. <sup>was</sup> Rev. & only <sup>was</sup> reported but to Mr Colley at <sup>was</sup> Herald Tower.

It must have been Colley who gave him a penny at Herald Tower. otherwise he wd not have obeyed Rev & helped him to go to FH.

We were rung out of brain at FA, + factoring after a speed. Cally was standing there. I took hand in us. He wanted to see Hol. This was at about 5:10am. They remained idly there during heavily until after 6:30am. I left bed at 6 pm. They were still idly there until after supper.
 Hol came to us. He id Cally came in a complaint th he had been told' th a mutual of FA th I was now very much anti-white; th he wanted to report he had known of Holdman. He spoke very badly of white, imitated them, as he did in a last speed.
 He wanted I to confirm deny it. I id he was not anti-white, but he was anti-white supremacy policy.

But why this remark charge, asked Colley be at Healdton you were eg of a good chap. And even be of an old you were very good but yes. What has happened this year. He id it was be o t book, I have read. Book 9 idnt by my land, or at Healdton. Book on native admin. and o t impart my lectures have made upon me
- of CS N/10/10. eg. - he was a lecture i was administrative man a large i party - we used to send into a bin - we used he was a member of the - he used to speak at length about how af were getting a raw deal from the system in a country.

after Kelly Colley went to bed sd, Colley gave him a ultimatum: <sup>if I don't</sup> ~~you must~~ believe in <sup>the</sup> principle: you are anti-white. Now you can't change for a better - you must because of Robert & then at Headtown - the day who is quite employed, concerned only with his boat, you must study & pass your degree & then you post is waiting for you at Headtown, & you'll make use of your scholarship for your 3 yrs. at FH. But if you continue on this new line you'll never, you'll remain a white man, you'll remain anti-white policy, then forget about the scholarship.

I forget about going back to Halden after company of AA. Don't give me an answer now. That answer I'll come again in a week time to get your reply.

As for me, you don't have to come. I'm going to give you my answer now you can keep your subordination.
But I'm not going to change my views. I've seen the light & I'm going to stick to these views for we are getting a real deal & it's up to fellows like me who see it to speak out. And I'm going to speak out now about your subordination.

So you can't take up subordination & feel content, but I can, but I'm not ~~going~~ <sup>going</sup> to change my views now.

But Colley snubbed le ind some agai next week, Bob told us this & at once we went to N'koko & he got fogged all t black before, including <sup>the</sup> N'koko (did recently prof o haute languages). G. Pitje ~~also~~ & other & told Ben about this threat to h's education.

They wd. tell Colley to keep his money & well dig into our own pockets to finance his education next year.

Mr Colley must have had 2nd sight, be he wrote to Bob a few wks later to apologise for his harshness; & told him he wd. cont. financing his education until he had finished his studies.

But ~~any~~ the song back to Holdham was out o + quibidi.

That he went on financing his education would be frustrated. A did apply to Holdham for a job as a teacher but didn't get it.

In fact, for Paul, after getting his degree he was not working. He only started working in a road works when Ngubeni(?) got him a job at standover.
