TELEGRAM TO MEMBERS OF PARLIAMENT. 11.9.84.

To Hendrickse and Rajbansi.

Many people are now being held in preventive detention for exercising their legitimate right to oppose the tricameral parliament.
We call upon your party members not to take their seats at the opening of Parliament unless all the detainees have been unconditionally released.
As a majority party you have a special responsibility to dissociate yourselves from the actions of the Government. Your silence is being interpreted as consent.

To Reddy

Many people are now being held in preventive detention for exercising their legitimate right to oppose the tricameral parliament.
We call upon your party members not to take their seats at the opening of Parliament unless all the detainees have been unconditionally released.

The Black Sash would like this telegram to be read at this C.C. & say they will support ~~the~~ actions decided on here.
