

3rd September, 1965.

Dear Mrs Sobukwe,

I am sorry I missed you when you came to see me this afternoon. I would have liked to have had the chance of talking to you as it has been a long time since we saw each other. For this I apologise, but as you will have seen from reports in the Press, I have been extremely busy with reports about the jails.

I shall take up without delay the question of the children's schooling, and you need not worry about this. Let me contact you again, however, about the matter of your next visit to Cape Town as I must investigate the position first.

Bob has written to me several times lately. On Saturday alone I received three letters from him. I was glad to know that the clothing had reached him safely and that it was to his taste. I shall be sending him two pairs of shoes tomorrow, as well as extra shirts, etc. He has asked me to let you have the size in suits he takes, and I shall send this out to you early next week.

If you are in need of anything, or if I can be of any help to you, please do not hesitate to let me know immediately.

All good wishes,

Sincerely,
