Report Brakpan, Monday 31st January 1955.

On Monday 31st January 1955 I met Branch executive composed of 6 members of the committee to whom I conveyed the decision of Congress in regard to the Western Areas Removal and also about the Bantu Education Act. They asked me to ask the Secretary to afford them these things underlined.

Brakpan:-

- (1). Resolutions of the National Conference.
- (2). The letters always reach them late.
- (3). Membership cards are very few they are finished the Branch is totally unable to carry out any work what so ever.
- (4). Draft constitution for consideration by members.
- (5). They asked for permission from ~~the~~ the Provincial Executive to carry on their work of establishing the East Rand Regional Committee.
- (6). That the Provincial Office does not inform Branches any longer about ~~the~~ Banns imposed on the Leader of Congress.

Yours faithfully,

J. Nkadimeng.
