The Secretary,
S.A.C.T.U.
44 Stal Plein Buildings,
CAPE TOWN.

Dear friend,
We were most dissappointed to find that you had not appointed a speaker for the MAY DAY meeting, and only on the last minute were you able to ask a visitor to speak for you. Also we were dissappointed not to receive a message for the meeting even though we had asked you for one about a week before.

Comrade, MAY DAY is an important day for the working class, and for us all. It was most important that the organisations of the workers i.e. the Trade Unions came forward on that day and showed their strength. Let us remember that our enemies are strong and that the reactionary trade unions are afraid of your strength. We hope that next years MAY DAY will see a powerful S.A.C.T.U. in cape Town capable of leading the celebrations.

Yours fraternally,
J. Motloheloa.

Dear Friend,

MAY DAY 1954.

May Day 1954 Celebrations will take place at the Bantu Social Centre on Saturday the 1st. May, 1954, commencing at 2 p.m.

Kindly arrange a speaker from your organisation
for this day.

We further appeal to you for a liberal donation to meet the cost of organising MAY DAY CELEBRATIONS.

Looking forward to an early reply.

Yours fraternally,
MAY DAY COMMITTEE,

Secretary.
