Dear Dot,

Thank you for your letter of January 9th. It certainly appears to me from your letter that my informant was not well informed. My intention is to send him your letter, but this I cannot do until I hear from him.

I am sorry that I did not acknowledge receipt of the photographs. I received them safely, and was grateful.

Yours affectionately,

(R) R. 15-00.

Dear Alan,

Thank you for your letter of 23rd January.

Adrian has undertaken to pay some of the bill from the attorneys, and I shall pay some of it, and so I am taking R10.00 from your cheque and returning to you herewith R15.00 - with most tremendous thanks. I'm also enclosing receipt from Norman, E's brother.

Also enclosed is copy letter Adrian has sent to the Minister, for your confidential information, as I know how very interested and compassionate you are.

I don't think that it is practical to hope for anything now, when the election is in the offing and the Govt. must not be seen to do anything "liberalistic".

Oh, pointless to hope anyway. But one does. The minute I hear anything, I'll surely inform you. E. is getting on quite well with his studies, though he says he was greatly disturbed by the visit of the two judges which came just before his examinations and thoroughly unsettled him.

Warm regards to Anne and you.
