JOHANNESBURG DEMOCRATIC ACTION COMMITTEE (JODAC)
P.O.Box 93118, Yeoville 2143.

Bew L77

Comrades,

We of JODAC, the Johannesburg Democratic Action Committee, hereby wish to apply for affiliation to the UDF.

The idea of forming Jodac was mooted at a series of meetings in September last year 1983. The initial meeting was held to report back on the UDF National Launch in Cape Town to people living in the central Johannesburg area. At subsequent meetings it was decided to form a Johannesburg based committee to help in the fight against the Constitutional Proposals and the Koornhof Bills.

JODAC's activities have included a Public Meeting just before the white referendum and a series of educational workshops on the constitutional proposals, the Koornhof Bills and repression in the Ciskei.

In November we held a general meeting at which the members of JODAC unanimously agreed to apply for affiliation to the UDF.

Yours in the struggle for a united non-racial democratic South Africa.
