Dear Mr M'CWabeni,

I was most sorry to learn from your letter of June 21 about your wife's death and your ill-health. I am all the more grateful to you for the trouble you went to in writing to me at such length about Robert Sobukwe.

You might be interested in knowing that, earlier this year, I visited Standerton and had the pleasure of meeting your former colleague, Mr Nodada.

He showed me the house where you had lived: 226 Kqbaka Street.

But he was not sure in which house Robert Sobukwe had lived. In case you can remember the address I would be very pleased to get it from you.

With best wishes,

Yours sincerely,

BENJAMIN POGRUND
