Dear Sir,

My attention has been drawn to a decision of my committee at which I was not present to request you to address the Durban Branch on Saturday afternoon on the Unemployment Insurance Act and its workings in so far as the African workers are concerned.

Owing to the circumstance I have indicated it has not been possible to give you enough time and I have been compelled to extend this invitation at short notice. I sincerely regret the invitation but should appreciate it very much if you are free on that particular occasion and find it possible to attend.

Yours faithfully,

Jordan K. Rintan

Secy.
