Dear Mr Whyte,

sent 25/11/49

I see you have a Memorandum available dealing with the Education Commission's Questionnaire. May I have a copy of it? I hope the enclosed stampage is enough.

I enclose a copy of the evidence I submitted on 31st November for your information. It is of course a personal & individual statement.

As I leave for overseas on 2nd December, please address the R. R. Memo to me at Cape Town (40 The Edinburgh Castle), if you do not think it could reach Blythswood before I leave.

Every good wish
Yours Sincerely
W. Isaacson
