

Dear Mamie.

I am afraid by the time you get this letter you will have sent the things by post, otherwise I would advise you to send them with Mr. Elin, as I am afraid they might get lost on the way. You see I have not received the pairs yet, I am afraid they have disappeared. Even if Mr. Elin is detained in Germany for 2 or 3 weeks it would not matter, at least I am sure to get it when he arrives. But still if you have sent them by post it can't be helped.

I am very glad about the Childrens Concert and hope even if they slip their lessons for a while, they will still keep practising as before in order ^{as} not to ~~be~~ get out of touch with the music. With regard to

Borrows, you might send him the bills if he prefers it you will have the rent bill, the rates & taxes etc. but still it does not matter very much either way so long as you are not left in the lurch.

What will I do at Christmas holidays?

Well the 26th we have a Concert, and the other days I am busy with other things.
There is plenty to do in Moscow. There are not enough hours in the day, & not enough days in the week to do all that one would like to do. And it's all interesting work.

I have nothing more to say at present.

Hope you are all keeping well.

Love

Sarah

Dear Mamie.

I am afraid by the time you get this letter you will have sent the things by post, otherwise I would advise you to send them with Mr. Elin, as I am afraid they might get lost on the way. You see I have not received the pens yet & am afraid they have disappeared. Even if Mr Elin is detained in Germany for 2. or 3 weeks it would not matter, at least I am sure to get it when he arrives. But still if you have sent them by post it can't be helped. I am very glad about the childrens Concert and hope even if they stop their lessons for a while, they will still keep practising as before in order as not to get out of touch with the music. With regard to Barlow, you might send him the bills if he prefers it you will have the rent bill, the rates & taxes &tc. but still it does not matter very much either way so long as you are not left in the lurge.
