Dear Uncle Benny,

I'm sorry to have taken such a long time in writing to you. I hope you and Mum are still very well.

I am studying very hard for the final examination since we might start writing early this year, either in October or November. I got a 60% pass ~~mark~~ in the June examination and I would like to do better than that.

Our set book this session is "The longer at ease". I find quite interesting and simple. I have read yet another book by Charles Dickens "Great Expectations" I find interesting too and a lot simpler than "Hard Times".

I find softball more interesting this session now that I can play it much better. We will be having a softball tournament next which includes all the schools in Lesotho next month.

I hope Baba's case is going on successfully, so that if we ~~hope~~ succeed we going to ~~visit~~ <sup>visit</sup> U.S.A. he should accompany us. ~~My~~ <sup>My</sup> greetings to Anne and Jenny.

Your loving Son,
Sine.
