Dear Benjamin,
I have about five letters to reply to and your was the last to come. But I have decided to indulge in a bit of favoritism and will give you letter first. Thanks with love for your letter. It is a real pleasure to hear from you.

Through the kind permission of the prison authorities, I am able to write and receive one letter per week and have one visit per week. I have therefore been able to write regularly to you and to my children and also to see my wife. Unfortunately children are not permitted visit the grounds but I see my kids at Milton.

Thanks for the news about Jennifer. I had not received the glad tidings yet. I am glad to hear of the good news. Jennifer is doing well. She is a little more so every day. Please I don't think Jennifer's best. I wish you happy. I should be a daddy to you. I am sorry I cannot come and see you. I expect to go to the lady, but I don't do so when I have left each.

My daughter is a beautiful, attending to her studies. She is a very good girl. She is a very good girl. She is a very good girl. She is a very good girl.

Glad to learn you are taken up your again - particularly outside of my when the fact the give it up because of your interference. Thanks for remembering me. Give love to all. Thank you also for your offer of help. As I said earlier I am able to write one letter per week so that if I don't write to you one week so that I may write to you one week so that I may write to you one week.

Jeff and Jack remained behind at Whitbank. I am still P.L. here. And we both would be happy to see you. You ~~will~~ may perhaps be able to send me some books to read. We are allowed to receive approved literature
- that EXCLUDES Watsons.

With my greetings to Arthur and the kids
I wish them the very best. Remember me to Pat and Dave when you do write to them.

Salami ka hle!

Yours very sincerely,
Bob.
