Dear Bengie,

7th April 1971

I received your letter and immediately established that the postal strike had held up the February issue but that it and the March issue were on their way and should arrive together any day. The posts are still a bit unpredictable so perhaps you could give it another week and cable me "Magazines not arrived" if the post is still playing us up.

Your other news was disturbing. We, of course, read about your troubles here and our thoughts are with you.

Yours
