Rensburg.

INTERNAL CONFLICT

NEW FACTORS

The dispute in the party high-

CAN DE GAULLE AVOID CIVIL WAR?

FRANCE faces civil war. Less than two years after General de Gaulle assumed power and promised the French people an era of peace and the complete elimination of strife, the French army is divided into two bitterly hostile groups ready to do battle with one another. And behind these two sections of the Army are two sections of the civilian population also mustering their forces for a possibly crucial and bitter struggle.

and a host of fascist groups in tary settlement of the problem. France itself, that paved the way for the General's accession to

At that time the Centre, the Liberals and the Socialists capitulated completely to de Gaulle, declaring that he was the only man trolled the holding of the referenwho could save France from a dum in Algeria made a complete civil war. Inside France itself the farce of it, but nevertheless, this Communists were the only substantial group that came out in step in the right direction. opposition to him.

Since then much turbulent water has flowed under the bridge. The Algerian colons and a considerable portion of the French Army in Algeria have virtually declared war on de Gaulle in a desperate attempt to force him to abandon his Algerian policy. And in France itself the fascist elements are supporting the colons, as are a large number of France's leading capi-

COMIC?

In an article which appeared in the New Statesman recently, before the latest crisis in Algeria came to the surface, Paul Johnson reported from Paris:

"One of the most comic (sic) spectacles in France today is to observe the old Petainiste businessmen, who clamoured for de Gaulle's head in 1940, and for his re-incarnation in 1958, working themselves back into their 1940

The resignation from the French Government of the "oldstyle Conservative" Finance Minister Pinay earlier this year should hasten this process, Johnson adds.

On the other hand, the Communists towards the end of last year changed their line of complete opposition to de Gaulle on all fronts to limited and qualified support for the General's new Algerian policy.

Thus the character of the de Gaulle Government has altered considerably over the last eighteen months. Whereas formerly its main backing came from the extreme Right, now it is maintained in the face of an attack from the Right by a Centre-Left grouping.

What has brought this remarkable change about?

LIBERATION ARMY

The main factor has undoubtedly been the relentless struggle for freedom of the Moslem people of Algeria, led by the Algerian Liberation Army.

Of all the promises de Gaulle made when he came to power, the one that gained for him the greatest support was that he would swiftly bring the Algerian war to an end. The French people were bitterly sick of the war, which was draining France's finances, causing great loss of life, and lowering the name of France in the eyes of the world.

de Gaulle's approach to Algeria at the time was to pursue a policy of "pacification" whereby the Algerian freedom fighters must go."

as his predecessors. Algerian people were flocking in to self-determination.

It is ironical that the very peo- ever greater numbers to their ple who brought de Gaulle to Liberation Army, and that the number of people were killed, and power are now his most bitter Liberation Army was improving opponents. Nearly two years ago as a military force, so de Gaulle it was the colons in Algeria, demonstrated that he was more backed by important sections of and more thinking in terms of a the Army, most of Big Business political rather than a purely mili-

> The first significant sign was the granting of the vote to the Mosems in Algeria when de Gaulle held the referendum on his new Constitution. True enough, the fact that the French Army conwas at least in principle a small

Then, to forestall yet another humiliating vote against France at UNO, de Gaulle announced towards the end of last year that the French Government would recognise the right of the people of Algeria to self-determination. He offered the Algerian liberation fighters the "peace of the brave" to be followed by four years in which normal public life would be restored, after which all the peo-ple of Algeria would have the right to self-determination.

STAGE By SPECTATOR

hammen

This declaration was hedged with so many qualifications as to be almost worthless as a practical suggestion, but its great impor-tance lay in the fact that again it was an acknowledgment of the principle that the Algerian people had the right to self-determination.

TOO MUCH

renewed wave of plotting began, 3 by the same people, but this time directed at sabotaging their former hero, de Gaulle.

Three weeks ago de Gaulle found it necessary to recall to Paris one of the arch-plotters who had helped to bring the de Gaulle regime into being-General Mas-

As the London New Statesman pointed out at the time:

"De Gaulle's position vis a vis the army and the 'ultras' has in fact worsened so much that he can no longer avoid a showdown. Moreover, the mere disciplining of Massu will not solve the problem, for Massu undoubtedly represents the views of the majority of the army.

"These may be summed up as follows: the de Gaulle policy is unworkable; we cannot fight a war against Algerian rebels in order to ensure Algerian self-determination at the end of it; the army will never leave Algeria, and if de Gaulle cannot understand that, he would be forced to sue for peace Now the showdown has come. on his terms. At the same time he Many thousands of French Algegave signs that he would not rians (called the 'insurgents' to disnecessarily continue with the same tinguish them from the Algerian hopeless policies towards Algeria 'rebels'!) lodged themselves behind massive barricades in the major As it became increasingly clear towns of Algeria, saying that they that far from being 'pacified' the would never accept Alegria's right

Fighting broke out in which a the French troops in Algeria were ordered to take firm measures against the insurgents. This they at first refused to do (for most of the army commanders were party to the anti-de Gaulle plot), and the crisis became severe.

WHICH WAY?

At the time of writing it is not yet clear how the crisis will resolve itself. de Gaulle has recognised that if he capitulates to the Algerian ultras now, he will be forever at their mercy, and this loss of prestige he cannot afford. Their actions have angered him not only because they are to him gross acts of personal disloyalty, but because he realises that their policy of continued repression in Algeria is doomed to disaster and could bring ruin to France.

De Gaulle has spoken firmly to the army commanders in Algeria, and the first signs are that they will climb down to some extent. Just how far they will retreat remains to be seen—they certainly are in a spot, what with the Algerian rebels pressing them from the one side, the insurgents from another and de Gaulle from a

De Gaulle rode to power on the back of a tiger. It now remains to be seen whether at the end of the ride the smile will be on his face, or on that

Morolong Arrested

Mr. Joseph Morolong and two others have been arrested on a charge of attending an illegal meet-

This demonstrator posted himself outside the Baragwanath Hospital.

ABOVE: The banner Macmillan didn't see, because it was confiscated by Special Branch men who snatched it from Congress demonstrators outside Jan Smuts airport (BELOW LEFT). In the picture (BELOW, RIGHT) the uniformed constable has seized a Congress poster, and the Special Branch man leans into the crowd to grab

POLICE were deployed as for a military operation while British Prime Minister Macmillan was rushed through much for the ultras in Algeria. A due to appear in court on February board was like a red rag to the trance. Special Branch bulls.

South Africa last week and this., South Africa, all cars carrying Non- minute, WITHOUT invitation Minister Verwoerd at the D. F. In all centres every available Europeans were stopped outside cards.

man, uniformed and Special Branch, Jan Smuts airport and refused entry. Macmillan adroitly dodged the airport to the city was kept a close- gresses and other Non-White orgawas posted to keep his eyes skinned for any Congress demonstrator approaching within hundreds of approach approa approaching within hundreds of stopped by Special Branch police room: "Well, I seem to have passed prowl. Standing due to visit. The sight of a white trouble you'll get it." The group was honour.' It was this that proved too Bail has been refused. They were calico banner or a sheet or card- escorted away from the airport en-

A group of Indian women who When Macmillan arrived in attempted to hold up posters as Mr. Macmillan emerged had them In Durban Mr. Macmillan's etectives snatched it from them.

JOHANNESBURG

nesburg, he was constrained to ask given to the jazz singers." the Mayor: "Why are there so At Clairwood, the Indian suburb,

New Age admission. "At this late placards. stage," said the official letter, ". entative in the limited number of gress and African National Conournalists . . invited."

Director, was even more explicit in ditions in South Africa. telephone refusal of an invitation, There was no room, he said firmly, Provision had been made for 64 ournalists and the place had been led long ago.

hey tried to unfurl their banner tions, the arrival was lifeless and colourless. Teenagers who witnessed the arrival of Tommy Steele and

At the Press conference held on millan a silent welcome. Here too Some drivers howey the day of Macmillan's arrival, the the crowds were interspersed with larly those in cars with platteland al! South Africans as soon as the

gress met visiting preasmen and Yet at the press conference there again observed in Cape Town Congress leaders, Congress has seen has been precipitated by two fac- place of exile. were 80 pressmen, and of these where Macmillan arrived on Mon- to it that he was presented with tors: about 10 were admitted at the last day afternoon to be met by Prime their point of view.

Malan airport. The route from the ism on this point from the Con- keng's sister-in-law, Rhoda.

leading from the airport were a force at the present moment. number of Congressmen and wo- There is no doubt that this con- will leave in Worcester when he remen. They appeared to carry no stituted a focus of disagreement in turns to Ngwavuma. placards, and so the watchful Spe- the Party. On the one hand it won MRS. MAFEKENG'S LETTER cial Branch men did not interfere for the Party whatever support it In a letter to Mr. Baartman, Mrs.

Mr. Macmillan emerged had them forcibly seized and a tussle ensued as the official car was waiting to leave. Special Branch men then lined up in front of the women.

Congress demonstrators then Congress demonstrators then the road leading to Pretoria, arrival was greeted by ANC volunteers, as the leading car was waiting to Macmillan's cavalcade approached them, they whipped out from under their clothes placards reading: "Luckies of the security nrecauters," and "Boycott African Leaders," and "Boycott We've never had the road leading to Pretoria, where the road leading to Pretoria, arrival was greeted by ANC volunteers, as the leading car was waiting to Macmillan's cavalcade approached them, they whipped out from under their clothes placards reading: "Luckies of the security nrecauters," "Verwoord is not our leader," "Verwoord is not our leader," "We've never had left the Party at this stage was Mr. It is to bad," "Meet the ANC," "Re-left the Party at this stage was Mr. It is to bad," "Meet the ANC," "Re-left the Party at this stage was Mr. It is to be a volunteer, hold firm. it so bad," "Meet the ANC," "Re-left the Party at this stage was Mr. left the Party at this stage was Mr. Donald Molteno Q.C. Others re-lease Randa" "As a volunteer, hold firm.

gether with the occupants of about retained their Party membership. Johnny Ray at the same airport 500 cars who passed through the The Liberal Party's universal hen with chickens which are only When Macmillan visited Johanwhere he was constrained to ask said "this was a dead show compared with the rousing welcome congresses and others on the congress message. A number were the congresses and others on the congress message. A number were the congresses and others on the congress message. sympathetic, many clapped, or ground that no time limit was set. can frighten them I also identify nodded their heads and smiled. Did the Party stand for universal many police about?" And the Mayor's disclosure of this to the Mayor's disclosure of this to the Side and strictly observed the call One woman, reading the poster of the Clairwood branch of the Clair press provoked Mr. Eric Louw to of the Clairwood branch of the "Verwoerd supported Hitler," re-Some drivers, however, particu- it be thrown open to a decision by one.

State Information Office refused Congressmen and women bearing registration numbers, were furious. Party came to power? "Dis nie waar nie," shouted one. In an attempt to clarify this Later in the afternoon leading Another leaned out of the window point, the more progressive element Worcester's Freedom Square on January 24 when the ANC there not possible to include your repremembers of the Natal Indian Consentative in the limited number of grees and African National Conof his car and said: "You need in the Liberal Party last year atcalled a meeting in honour of Mr machine guns" ly: "Why don't you go back to Party than ever before. All in all, even though Mr. Mac-

Right-Wing Resignations in Cape Town CAPE TOWN. | racial" Progressive Party, which the branches was also evenly split, appears to have a Parliamentary and it was felt that the Party could NUMBER of prominent appears to have a Parliamentary and face the rigours of an election members of the Liberal all representation in Parliament at when its membership was so uncer-Party here have resigned in re- the end of this session when the tain of itself. The candidate was to cent weeks following disagree- African representatives are expelled in terms of the Bantu Self-Governor the Party's National Committee. ment Act).

LIBERAL PARTY BACKS

ECONOMIC BOYCOTT

Mr. M. G. Ashworth, former trea-surer of the Party in Cape Town, and Mrs. Ashworth; Mr. John Dun-London and have been shaken by Cape members who were affected. There was no question of the Cape as a whole not carrying out are understood to be considering cott decision without adequate con- their utmost to implement it.

The Liberal Party's policy of intention to put up a candidate in expected that the conference will universal suffrage; the Rondebosch by-election for the discuss the basic policies at issue in preparation for the national conferof support for the economic mittee was split 50-50 on the elec- ence of the Party which is due to boycott and the activities tion issue. A larger meeting be held in Cape Town later in the overseas of Mr. Patrick van attended by representatives from all year.

Among those who have resigned | 2. The economic boycott policy, | A member of the National Comhave been Mr. Walter Stanford which is the most controversial mittee of the Liberal Party, in an M.P.; Mr. J. T. R. Gibson, who campaign issue with which the interview with New Age, emphaunsuccessfully opposed Ray Alex- Party has ever been associated. sised that these differences of ander and Len Lee-Warden in the Many Liberal Party right-wingers opinion were confined to the Cape, 1954 Parliamentary by-elections; have been extremely embarrassed and it was only a minority of the can (brother of Patrick Duncan) the flood of criticism from both national policies. The majority of and his wife Pam; Mr. Douglas Government and Opposition parties Cape members, together with Libe-Duncan, one of the directors of and their press. The allegation is ral Party members in the other pro-Juta's; and Mr. R. S. Baker, of also made that the National Com- vinces, were in full support of the Rustica Press. A number of others mittee adopted the economic boy- economic boycott and would do their membership in the light of re- sultation inside the Party before- The Cape dispute will be ventilated at the provincial conference There have been two main causes | The dispute inside the Party has of the Liberal Party to be held in also led to the abandonment of the Cape Town this week-end. It is Not all those who have resigned are opposed to these two points on principle. Some accept them, but Welcome For Ben Baartman mation. To whom must the Party look for support to bring it into power—to the Whites, who have the vote, or the Non-White majority who are voteless? Where must Paarl, when he paid a visit to the the Party play its most important family of Mrs. Elizabeth Mafekeng. role, in the Parliamentary or extra- Although he arrived unexpectedly he was given a thunderous Afrika When the Party was first formed, salute by scores of jubilant people adopted a policy of qualified outside Mrs. Mafekeng's home. Mr. franchise for all on a common roll, Baartman and others from Worcesbut was subjected to steady criticiter were the guests of Mrs. Mafe-

Return to Exile This Week

Going from house to house visitfranchise and adopted the policy of African and Coloured, who plied road universal suffrage which is still in him with questions, particularly about his four children whom he enjoys among a section of the Non- Mafekeng, who is now in Basuto-

Mr. Macmillan and his party, to- signed from Party committees but "I know what it is to leave your children alone at home—it is like a myself with the many people who upon the White electorate or would children as you have murdered no tempted to get the Party to adopt a called a meeting in honour of Mr. One man shouted to Mrs. Lettie Malindi: "Why don't you go back I feel attempt did not succeed, but it lense when a riot van full of Mr. P. Meiring, State Information made known their feelings on conditions in South Africa.

POLICE AT MEETING

One man shouted to Mrs. Lettle Malindi: "Why don't you go back left the right-wing feeling more unsceed, but it heavily armed police arrived on the left the right-wing feeling more unsceed, but it left the right-wing feeling more unsceed to make a specific transfer of the left the right-wing feeling more unsceed to make a specific transfer of the left the right-wing feeling more unsceed to make a specific transfer of the left the right-wing feeling more unsceed to make a specific transfer of the left the right-wing feeling more unsceed to make a specific transfer of the left the right-wing feeling more unsceed to make a specific transfer of the left the right-wing feeling more unsceed to make a specific transfer of the left the right-wing feeling more unsceed to make a specific transfer of the left the right-wing feeling more unsceed to make a specific transfer of the left transfer of transfer of the left transfer of t home?" To which she replied quick- certain of their position in the scene, but the speakers appealed to the audience to remain calm.

The people were, however, angered by the news that Mr. Baart-Strong security precautions were millan has been kept from meeting The recent spate of resignations man would have to return to his

Speakers at the meeting also dealt 1. The birth of the "multi- with the economic boycott, Bantu

CAPE TOWN. Authorities and the boycott of the * Modern 'easy-write' styling for comfortable writing.

* 14 ct. gold plated nibs to give character to your writing.

GELB'& CO. P.O. Box 4027.

Johannesburg.

TREASON TRIAL "MURDER" SPEECH

RECORDED ON TAPE

underground; also by the riot in December 5, 1954. Durban's Cato Manor. More than the morning newspaper where these incidents are reported.

come the three scarlet-robed judges speeches made. led by the Judge President of the Transvaal, Mr. Justice Rumpff. The and a microphone. There are two loudspeakers, one behind the judges microphone was switched off. and the other in front of the 30 forward to catch the first words of or the tape-recording machine certain statements taken by police officers. This was done to give the electronic and sound machines, Dr. speak to the masses.

SUMMIT meeting is scheduled for this month, to take place in the mother city. But you're wrong if you think that we will be turning out the flags to welcome foreign ministers and diplomats for this get-together. It is being called by the CAD's Dr.

I.D. for the top brass of the coon

It looks as if die doktor is trying hard to warm up the cold war thing is said about political and stay away, but no doubt Dr. I.D.

will find some poor say who will

THE United Party, going head-anxious to show the white electo-long down the drain, is always sing a liedtjie for the masters.

That is enough reason for us to blacks, no matter what.

economic rights.

carnivals.

J. Lochner, had given evidence, the TIME is 10 a.m. There is an air first witness was called. Det.-Sgt. of uneasiness surrounding the Swanepoel of Durban played back Court. The accused are concerned tape-recorded speeches made at a about the Coalbrook tragedy where conference of the Congress of the 440 miners have been trapped People held in Pietermaritzburg on

Sgt. Swanepoel said that the conhalf of the accused are still reading ference was held at the Ridge Cinema. He was in the projecting room. The people in the conference "Silence in court," shouts the tall, did not know he was there. He smiling-faced court orderly, and in took a tape-recording of the

NKOSI SIKELELE AFRIKA

The microphone opened with the anxiety grows. There is a visible singing of "Nkosi Sikelele Afrika." change in the Special Court. Apart- This took the accused by surprise. heid in the witness box has been dispensed with. The "Non-Europeans Only" side of the witness box cused Tshunungwa jerked forward is no more. Next to the witness box, to stand up but realised in time there is a tape-recording machine where he was. Before the accused knew what was happening the

BACK TO THE SQUARE The resounding shouts of "Afri-"The show is on," murmurs one ka" that followed speech after of the accused. All the accused lean speech reminded the accused of the pre-treason case days. Many started the compere. Advocate G. Hoexter imagining the meetings they had (for the Crown) told the court that addressed at the Bantu Social Centhe Crown proposed to play back tre, Durban, at the Parade in Cape Town, at the "Freedom Square," Sophiatown, and at "Emlotheni," New Brighton, Port Elizabeth. Some Court the atmosphere at these of the accused listened to themselves meetings. After an expert witness on talking and heard their colleagues

ment on the Job-Reservation-Through-The-Back-Door Bill was another example of that anxiety to demonstrate that they too believe in baasskap. And they need not explain their actions to the Non-the floor to join the Nats on this issue too, and I'll eat my hat if they can convince any self-respect-

But the Coloured reps, G. S. P.

Cross-examined by Mr. S. Kentridge (for the defence) Sgt. Swanepoel said that this was a private meeting, that was why he had con-cealed himself. He also said that his presence was unknown to the people in the conference. Answering another question he said that he had no reason to think that the notes he took at meetings would be used in a criminal charge.

Mr. Kentridge: You never thought that the speeches made at these meetings would bring about a charge?—Sometimes criminal doubted.

In the notes taken by Stg. Swanepoel at a meeting of a Vigilance Committee held to discuss the Group Areas Act there appears the number of Mr. Alan Paton's car.

Mr. Kentridge: Why did you take down the number of Mr. Alan Paton's car? Do you normally take cown car numbers?

Sgt. Swanepoel: No. I don't know why I took this number. It must have been a particularly nice car.

Next came in Det.-Sgt. Vlok of Cape Town. He replayed speeches tape-recorded at a meeting in Cape Town on December 11, 1955. The accused were moved by the voice of "old man treason" Mtini. The old man was a favourite of the accused. At the time the accused were locked up in the Fort in Johannesburg, he was always surrounded by young men. All he had to do was to open his mouth and wisdom and experience would ooze out. This old man never hesitated to help the youth in their problems.

The third witness to play back speeches on the tape-recorder was Det.-Sgt. M. B. Diedrichs. He was to replay a speech which everyone had been waiting for. This was the meeting held at the Congress Hall, 37 West Street, Johannesburg, nine days before the 156 men and women were arrested at dawn on December 5, 1956 on a charge of high treason.

le Roux and Bill Holland, crossed MURDER, MURDER, MURDER

The tape-recording machine went on "War has been declared. The leaflets of the African National Congress say that the time has come. What is the time that has come? It was six o'clock this morning, it was six o'clock tonight, it's going to be six o'clock tomorrow morning—what is the time that has come?"

The speech goes on to deal with what a volunteer is: "A volunteer is a person who is disciplined. This is the key of the volunteer—discipline.

"When you are disciplined and you are told by the organisation not be violent, you must not be violent. If you are a true volunteer and you are called upon to be violent, you must be absolutely violent, you must, murder! murder! murder!

That is all. "Your leaders have told you that monster of jealousy has reared the Government of this country, amongst other things, is planning to arrest 200 leaders and is attacking every day leaders of the people. My directions to you are, if this Government in its madness does one day arrest 200 leaders - then, 200,000 Congress members must emerge from those who are remaining in this country. You can only do that my friends if you are going to kill your brothers.' The part of the last sentence with the word "kill" has been played time and again in Court in order to ascertain whether the word is "kill" or "tell." After it had been played many times Mr. Justice Kennedy was of the opinion that the word used was "tell." The interpreter plus some of the accused who have listened to the Sechwana translation say the interpreter uses the word speeches taken at a meeting in 1954 industrial upsurge in which they Religion took part.

DESTROYED

when the offices of the Transvaal Indian Congress were in Kort Street, Johannesburg, is still subject to legal argument because the original tape record was destroyed. The Crown contends that the witness is entitled to use the transcript and the defence contends that the witness has no right to do so.

Det.-Sgt. Gladwill Ngcai and Det.-Sgt. Douglas Ndaba were called in to identify voices from the tape-recording machine. They have identified the voices of Moretsele, Leslie Massina, Philemon Mathole and John Nkadimeng among the accused.

Cross-examining Sgt. Ngcai, Mr. V. C. Berrange (for the defence) first read the evidence of Sgt. van der Heever, who said at the preparatory examination that Congress was a non-violent organisation. He quoted Detective Masilela as having said that Congress said the way to freedom was through education not violence. In all meetings Masilela said the African National Congress asked the people not to resort to violence. They should not fight in any manner whatsoever.

Mr. Berrange then referred Sgt. Ngcai to his evidence at the preparatory examination. Sgt. Ngcai, under cross-examination by Mr. Berrange at the preparatory examination, had agreed that speakers at Congress meetings had repeatedly said that they did not want to fight Europeans. They said that they want freedom but they do not want to achieve it by violence. Ngcai admitted that was so. He further said that he had heard speakers at African National Congress meetings say that their struggle was a non-violent

Mr. Berrange: Do you adhere to your evidence?

Sgt. Ngcai: Yes.

Mr. Berrange: Is there anything you want to change now or qualify?

Journalists Protest to Erasmus

JOHANNESBURG. The Council of the South African Society of Journalists has sent a letter to the Minister of Justice, Mr. F. C. Erasmus, protesting against the Security Police interference with visit to Windhoek as "an attack on the freedom of the Press.'

BANNED!

JOHANNESBURG.

Eighty-eight publications have been banned from importation into the Union under the Customs Act in terms of a notice in the Government Gazette dated January 15,

Some of the titles are:

The African Communist, October 1959 issue;

Those Without Shadows, by Francoise Sagan; Young Lonigan, by James T.

Farrell;

The Best of Brigitte Bardot (a magazine);

A number of issues of the Ghana newspapers Daily Graphic, Ashanti Pioneer, Evening News, Ghana Times and Ghana World;

News Bulletin of the All-African People's Conference;

Catalogue of Newspapers and Magazines of the USSR for 1959. and other publications from the socialist countries.

Bertrand Russell Beats the Ban

JOHANNESBURG.

BEATING the censor, the Rationalist Association of S.A. has printed an essay by the British philosopher Bertrand Russell "Why I am not a Christian," as a protest against the banning last year of a collection of Russell's essays with the same title. The Rationalist pamphlet contains the first essay in the collection, and was originally published in pamphlet form in 1927.

Printed in both official languages this pamphlet is the first on atheism or agnosticism ever to be printed in Afrikaans. "It represents the march of the Afrikaner towards modernism," commented a member of the Rationalist Association.

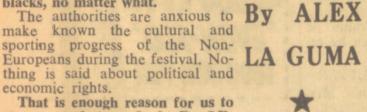

The pamphlet is being sold for 2/6d. and is available from Box 11221, Johannesburg.

The Government has powers under the Customs Act to ban the importation of literature deemed 'indecent, obscene or otherwise objectionable," but has no such powers in respect of literature printed in South Africa. It is believed that a Bill granting the Gov-Mr. B. P. Bunting during his recent ernment powers of internal censorship is to be introduced in Parliament this session.

that is developing among Non-Whites over the Union festival, and this might be his first attempt to get some participation from us The authorities are anxious to By ALEX make known the cultural and sporting progress of the Non-

MY ALLEY

Whites.

ing Coloured person that this was done for the good and welfare of the community.

rate that they are just as bad as ALSO hear that the green-eyed the Nats. Voting with the Governits ugly head after Mr. Mac was made Paramount Chief of Transvaal tribes. Herr Doktor Verwoerd is said to be growling that only he should be recognised as a Great White Father, and in future he will see to it that Makulubaas De Wet Nel is very careful whom he presents with a briefcase.

> NO doubt prima ballerina Nadia Nerina deserved the tremendous ovation she received at her recent performance in London, before returning home to join the Royal Ballet, but a razzberry should go to the Company for leaving behind another distinguished South African dancer, Johar Mosaval.

It would not be Johar who would be embarrassed by South Africa's apartheid laws if they brought him along, but South Africa itself, and a good thing

Prowl

N recent weeks a team of SABRA representatives has been touring the Eastern Cape. They spent most of their time in the Transkei, where they visited African attorneys, traders and chiefs.

They are reported to have discussed the implementation of the Bantu Authorities Act. Following the Nationalist Government line the SABRA representatives tried to convince the people they visited about the great opportunities offered to them by the establishment of Bantu Authorities.

Most of the attorneys refused to take part in the implementation of the Act in so far as they were required to act as legal advisors to the Chiefs. One even refused to meet the SABRA team. On the other hand George Matanzima has given up his practice to become a chief.

The team also contacted some traders and other professional men with a view to urging them to participate in Bantu Authorities. The main inducement trotted out for would play a key role as industrial-

The team put suggestive questions across, and tried to allay the fears revealed by the answers by stressing the good intentions of the Afrikaners and the Nationalist Government-two terms which seemed synonymous to the team, as one person who attended these discussions told New Age.

Some of the people who were present at the interviews told New Age that they were suspicious of the motives of the SABRA team. One man said the Government used so many methods to spy on what the people were doing that he felt concerned about the interviews.

"For all I know," he said, "I should not be surprised to see the Special Branch coming to inquire about something, or the Native Commissioner asking other questions related to what took place at these interviews."

In Port Elizabeth the meeting with the representatives of SABRA was organised by the B.A.D. offi-A transcript of tape-recorded this group was the promise of a new cials, and a number of Ministers of

MARVO

The Miracle Polish

Absorbs Dust, Disinfects, Polishes-

All in One Easy Action

PORT ELIZABETH.

Collection Number: AG2887

Collection Name: Publications, New Age, 1954-1962

PUBLISHER:

Publisher: Historical Papers Research Archive, University of the Witwatersrand

Location: Johannesburg

©2016

LEGAL NOTICES:

Copyright Notice: All materials on the Historical Papers website are protected by South African copyright law and may not be reproduced, distributed, transmitted, displayed, or otherwise published in any format, without the prior written permission of the copyright owner.

Disclaimer and Terms of Use: Provided that you maintain all copyright and other notices contained therein, you may download material (one machine readable copy and one print copy per page) for your personal and/or educational non-commercial use only.

People using these records relating to the archives of Historical Papers, The Library, University of the Witwatersrand, Johannesburg, are reminded that such records sometimes contain material which is uncorroborated, inaccurate, distorted or untrue. While these digital records are true facsimiles of paper documents and the information contained herein is obtained from sources believed to be accurate and reliable, Historical Papers, University of the Witwatersrand has not independently verified their content. Consequently, the University is not responsible for any errors or omissions and excludes any and all liability for any errors in or omissions from the information on the website or any related information on third party websites accessible from this website.

This document is held at the Historical Papers Research Archive, University of the Witwatersrand, Johannesburg, South Africa.