COME TO THE LAUNCH OF YOUTH YEAR

Sunday 21 April 10am - 6pm
Tembisa Mathole Cinema

1985 has been declared International Youth Year (IYY) by the United Nations. Young people throughout the world, have already begun to celebrate this event. The themes for IYY are PARTICIPATION, DEVELOPMENT AND PEACE. Young people have seen the need to come together to solve their problems, and grow into mature people, living in a world of peace and harmony.

In South Africa, too, we young people face many problems. We do not have the right to make decisions about our lives. Our many talents are not allowed to develop and our attempts to create a better future for all, are stifled.

So, as young people we need to come together to decide how we can bring about a happier society. All over the country youth are on the move. In the Transvaal a great start has been made with the formation of the Transvaal IYY Committee. It has invited youth of all races to join it in its launch.
