Dear Benjamin:

I am indeed sorry that there has been some delay in my replying to your letter of July 19. One reason is that it took a long time to reach me, partly because I was on vacation and away. I enclose a check and shall be very glad if you will let me know that it is safely in your hands. The enclosed correspondence was very good to have and I am most grateful to you for sending it to me. I have passed it on to Mrs. Taylor. She has explained to me that she has not written because the letter giving the address was mislaid and she regrets this very much. Now, however, that we have the letter with the address fresh, she will be writing. Do give my best greetings, both to Mr. S. and to Mrs. S.

ENCLOSURE TO FOLLOW

If more money is needed, please let me know. I have been following much of your activity through the press here in the United States. The major newspapers as you probably know have been very sympathetically reporting the situation. What you are doing makes many people very proud of you and grateful for you.

With best greetings,

Sincerely,

Robert S. Milheiser
