UDF PRESS RELEASE ON MR. TOM BOYA

Revised AM 60"

The appending of a signature on the UDF declaration by Mr. Tom Boya is a demonstration on his part of identification with the UDF, rejection of the Black Local Authorities and admission of the correctness of the UDF position against the patently unjust system of Apartheid.

It is now very clear that Mr. Boya has got no option but take his courageous decision a step further and resign from these most discredited structures. By so doing, he shall have identified with the masses and stayed clear of the crime of Apartheid.

We note with disgust the preparedness of Mr. Sinaba to be a "porn and a tool" in the hands of Piet Koornhof. His determination to be a partner in the crime of Apartheid is clearly indicated by the characteristically shameless fashion in which he defends Apartheid. We call on all the mayors to see reason now, and to resign before it is too late. Lest they go into the dustbins of history with all the sellouts who came before them. Those who want to repent must do so now.
