YOUTH UNITY UNDER UDF

P W Botha's new constitution and the Koornhof Bills are an attempt to divide our country.

The 'new deal' divides Africans from 'Coloureds' and Indians. It also tries to divide urban from rural people. It seeks to destroy the non-racial unity that our people and their organisations have built over the years.

This constitution has been drawn up without the consultation and agreement of our people and our leaders. We call for a constitution based on the will of all the people of South Africa, one in which the people shall truly govern.

- * The government wants Indian and Coloured people to look as if they are a party to apartheid laws against Africans.
- * The unequal political rights offered Indian and Coloured people will not end the sufferings in these communities, let alone end the suffering in African communities.
- * Indian and Coloured youth will be sent to 'the border' to die for apartheid.
- * Racist and undemocratic education will still be a way of life in South Africa.
- * Rises in GST and income tax will keep on happening so Botha can pay for the SADF and the new parliament.

We, the youth, need to unite with our parents, brothers and sisters to reject Botha's plans. WE MUST STAY AWAY FROM THE POLLS ON AUGUST 22 AND 28. WE MUST REFUSE TO VOTE IN BANTUSTAN AND COMMUNITY COUNCIL ELECTIONS. We must commit ourselves to the struggle for a better future.

Issued jointly by Transvaal UDF, student and youth affiliates. Khotsb House, De Villiers St, JHB.
