Dear Sam,

Thank you for your letter. It was good to hear from you and to know that you are still here and well.

Firstly, about the parcel. No I have not sent it. I have it here with me. The things I have are the trousers, shoes for your son and so on. I was going to keep them until you came back. But, if you want them I will send them. So please let me know.

Secondly, I gave your letter to Jill. She was very pleased to hear from you.

Thirdly, I am not able to tell you that it is safe to return. There are still many many people from the Vaal Triangle in detention.

The police have not yet brought them to court for on a charge. So we don't know what will happen if you return. But, you must make that decision for yourself. You

Can wait a few more weeks to see what happens to the people in detention.
We will see if they get charged.
Or you can come back and take a chance that they don't also want you for such a court case. But, whatever you decide to do, please let me know. For my part, I think maybe you should wait a couple more weeks. I will write to you again as soon as I hear anything.

Wishing you a safe stay in Lebowa my regards to your wife, your brother and his wife and to all the children.

Much love,

Glenda Webster.
