Dear Alfred:

I have just returned home from a three weeks' absence on missionary business and find your letter of October 10. I am glad to have your address again. I have not answered your last letter because it gave me no address and I knew you were about to leave London.

Most heartily do the Bishop and I congratulate you on receiving this new degree from London University. It is a very fine distinction and you deserve every congratulation for your perseverance, your application and your intelligence. You deserve praise. We are genuinely pleased and proud of you. You are right. My brother will, also, be happy to know about your degree.

I think you are wise in allowing the personal matter, which we have discussed, to work itself out. Meantime, you are, of course, not cutting off communication. I hope for your sake that your ardent hopes may be realized.

I was in Louisville, Ky. last week and as I went down the elevator in the hotel one day a gentleman accosted me heartily. It was Dr. Emory Ross, just back from Africa. He said in the moment we had before I got off. "I am sorry I didn't see Xuma. I didn't get down to South Africa." You will recall that I wrote to you about him. He has been making a survey of African missions and taking pictures which will be used widely for lecture purposes. He is the new secretary for Africa of the International Missionary Council with headquarters at 156 - Fifth Avenue. You will recall I tried to get you two together but failed.

Always with every best wish to you in all that concerns you.

Sincerely yours,

Evelyn Riley Nicholson
(Mrs. Thomas Nicholson)

I hope you found the children well. I can imagine their joy at your return. My niece Alice Riley was married in August. Her name is now Mrs. Morris Newman. Mother and the bishop send regards.

Dear D^r Xuma,

Although I have never had the pleasure of meeting you I feel I know you for I have so often heard of you, & read in the papers.

I am indeed glad to feel you are back in South Africa for there is much waiting still to be done.

I look forward to meeting you some time & hope it will be possible for you to take a meal with my wife & I at Rondepont one day.

Dear Sir,

At about this time last year you were kind enough to give us £2. 2. 0. towards the annual expenditure of the Centre. My Committee will be very grateful if you can again support us.

The Annual Report for 1937, which is enclosed, explains in detail the activities at the Centre and includes a copy of the Accounts for the year and a list of our Donors and Subscribers.

The institution provides a meeting place and club for the men of our native population and continues to be the centre for many social functions. In this way, therefore, we endeavour to cater for the leisure hours of at least a portion of our native men living in or near Johannesburg.

Yours faithfully,

Dear Dr. Xuma:

I was very gratified to receive your letter of October 10 and to know that you have at last realized your ambition to receive the doctorate in Public Health from the University of London. I am sure that the experience of the past year has been a valuable one for you and that your success in completing the work will give you additional opportunities in your home land. I immediately passed on the word to Mr. West and to Dean Freeman as well as to members of the department. I am sure that they, as well as all of the rest of us, will watch with interest your work in the future.

I am wondering if you happened to see the Northrups when you were in London. I do not know just what time they were there but the last we heard from them they were at Nice in France. They have had an exciting experience but on the whole I think that they have greatly enjoyed their European stay.

Just at present the most exciting thing in the entomological news in this region is concerned with the finding that the equine encephalomyelitis is infective to man and that a number of cases have occurred in connection with the outbreaks among horses. While the theory of the insect transmission of the disease is not yet firmly established there is very strong evidence in favor of considering it one of the important ways.

With best personal regards, I am

Sincerely yours,

Wm. A. Riley

Dear Alfred,

Received your long looked-for letter about a week ago - & that perhaps you were on the high seas turned toward So. Africa -

How did the work turn out? How were the exams? I know you got along splendidly with them, as usual.

I am writing this letter to you from my sickbed - have been down with a very bad cold - went away over the week-end to spend the time with three aunts of mine while there (Salisbury N.C.) I contracted the cold - Had I was about to go into pneumonia but I am staying in and using a lot of precaution -

The weather has been lovely here all fall - lovely & radiant weather. That may be why so many colds are prevalent.

I think I told you we sold our home - the one I sent the picture - It is really too large for only two of us now - I am building a 5 room cottage in another section of the city for one sister and myself. We hope to move in about Christmas.

I am enclosing the snaps you asked for. I am sure you want to get your hands on it if you had no negative - He will enjoy looking at it when he gets a little larger.

I don't feel so strong now so I am going to close. Excuse short letter this time -

Write soon
Maude

● Bitini, my dear,

How have I been longing for your letter! I can't tell you how lost and lonely I felt when I realized that you had gone. Then came your postcard. I was glad you had sent it to me. I wanted to write to you, but as I had not your African address, I had to wait. I followed ● you sailing and pictured you arriving at home received by your children.
Oh Bitini, believe me, I can imagine how you felt when you saw your daughter running along the train and when you held your son in your arms. There is so much human love in you and with you. That's perhaps the strongest point why I am missing you so much.

You wrote: I miss the pleasant discussion we used to have. I have to write: I miss all the love which came from you, all your warmth and human understanding. You will say that it did not seem as ^{as long as you were here} whether I appreciated all your kindness. But I did; I don't say it now because I am "safe" knowing you in J.
It is perhaps that: more than ^{appreciated} the actual showing of fondness was and still is the very human feeling of not wanting to be alone. I mean ^{don't} fear of being alone, or wanting to escape that which seems to be essential for all people who have some special things to do in life: loneliness

but I mean the human desire for understanding. Not the intellectual understanding, but the understanding of the desire for peace and rest, for contact with the very nature of life, may it be outdoors by walking through dark woods, or climbing mountains, or basking on the sea, or may it be within our souls by meeting another human being and dealing in some ways with his attitude towards life and sharing it.

That sounds rather confuse. I am not able to explain it better. Perhaps you will be able to find out what I mean. It is quite simple. To know someone where one can put one's head on his shoulder, where two strong arms will be put round one's own shoulders, where one can rest from the life's pitiless struggle - but not lost in abstract ideas but rest in another living being - that is a great thing. If I had children, I am afraid I had to be careful not to let them feel how very much I would need them, their warmth and their contact with life.

But enough about that. I am glad to know you back in J., in your own house, with your children, your sister and your friends. I am glad that you can build up again your practice. I hope things are not too bad since you left all your own work to a substitute. Anyhow I wish you all the best in every respect.

You asked about Silly Oak. That's very nice of you. There are 3 things to tell.

 First of all. I am not working very hard.
 I don't want and I can't. I want some weeks of quiet and getting thoughts clear and finding back to my attitude towards life and so on. I enjoy my small little bedroom and play the violin for 2 or 3 hours sometimes during the day.
 That helps a lot. — There are some very good books in the library. The lectures are except two rather poor, I use them as a kind of recreation and don't listen carefully. The life in my College here is pleasant and friendly, we are only 8 girls, all of them have done practical social work, so that there is a common basis of experience. There should be as well the common basis of Christian faith and Christian life, but I am afraid, the more I live in a Christian community, the more I feel myself an outsider, an heretic, a very cruel and physical being amongst all these holy spirits. They are all so extremely ~~far~~ far away from reality. And they started to give up all their good and strong natural impulses and feelings long before they were properly developed. How can you direct your emotions by the Christian way of living, if you have no longer emotions?

Ceylon, my latest plan, has failed. As usual: German nationality is not wanted. I don't know what will happen in January. It is nice of you to say that you believe in an opportunity for me in life.

With my best thoughts and wishes
for you, Marianne.

JOINT COMMITTEE OF EUROPEAN AND AFRICAN WOMEN

AND

JOHANNESBURG.

ANNUAL REPORT, 1938.

Since the last Annual General Meeting in November 1937, there has been a very satisfactory increase in membership, and it is particularly gratifying that the proportion of African members has increased considerably.

The interest of the public in our work during the year has been kept alive by Mrs Ballinger's report to the Conference of Societies affiliated to the Johannesburg N.C.W., by the Hon. Secretary's report to the Junior Branches of the Women's Association of the Presbyterian Association of South Africa, and by articles in the European and Bantu Press by Mrs Ballinger, Mrs Barnett Potter, Mrs H. Jaff and the Hon. Secretary. At the beginning of the year, Miss Beale, Mrs Hoernlé and Mrs Ray Phillips were invited to join the Executive. Their wide experience of work among the Bantu has been of great assistance to the Committee.

BANTU CHILDREN'S HOLIDAY FUND.

This activity of the Joint Committee of European and African Women continues to progress.

The Third Trip. The third party of 49 convalescent children in charge of Mrs Piliso and Mrs Rampa were sent down to Imbumbulu on 29th December, 1937 and spent an enjoyable fortnight in the ideal surroundings of Miss V. Makanya's home.

Since the cost of transport of the children from Imbumbulu was prohibitive and made it impossible to give the children more than three or four days of the fourteen on the beach, the Committee made enquiries into possible sites on the coast.

The Fourth Trip. The Rev. Anderson, Superintendent of the Fairview Mission Station, Umzumbi, offered the Committee the use of the Mission School Building for the July trip. A party of 54 children were sent to Fairview in charge of Mrs Raborife and Miss Mpulo. The supervision of the camp was in the capable hands of Miss B. Clissold, whose honorary services were deeply appreciated by the Committee. Durban and Johannesburg firms gave liberal donations in kind to this camp, and also sent their donations carriage-paid to the camp (See list of donors attached). Mr and Mrs Anderson earned the deep gratitude of the Committee for their kindness and helpfulness while the children were staying at Fairview, and it was a disappointment to find that Mr Anderson could not arrange to accommodate the fifth trip. Fairview is only a short distance from the beach, and the children were able to spend almost every day sea-bathing and playing on the beach under Miss Mpulo and Mrs Raborife's watchful eyes.

The Fifth Trip. The fifth party of convalescent children from the Johannesburg and Reef Locations will leave Johannesburg on 31st December and will spend a fortnight in Durban. Through the kind offices of Mr McK. Malcolm, the Committee has been granted the use of the Taylor Street Government School, Durban, within easy walking distance of the beach and near the spacious recreation grounds. Unfortunately, Miss Clissold is not able to supervise this camp, but we have obtained in Miss Cowie, the Matron of Inanda Seminary, a worthy successor to Miss Clissold, and Miss Cowie has had considerable experience in running very successful Youth Camps in New Zealand. We should like here to express our sincere gratitude to Rev. J. Trumpelman of Woyenthin Mission Station, Heidelberg, who offered us every facility to accommodate the fifth group at the Mission School-house in January, should we be unable to find suitable accommodation at the coast.

Cost of Trips. The total cost of giving each child a fortnight's holiday at Fairview was £2. 12. 6. This covered train fare, food, ox-wagon trips, sports prizes, etc., together with a proportionate share of the general expenses of running the holiday camp. These expenses included provision for the rail-fare and accommodation of the honorary supervisor Miss Clissold and the two African teachers from the Reef. The cost of sending the next group of children to Durban for the first two weeks in January 1939 will exhaust the funds of the Committee, and, in spite of the endless deserving demands on the generosity of the public of Johannesburg and the Reef, we hope this work will receive their continued support. During the past year, the African people showed a gratifying interest in the Fund. The African members of the Committee were able to donate £7. 4. 4. to the Fund as the proceeds of a dance they had organised.

Selection of Children. The Committee, owing to limitation of funds, has to exercise a rigorous selection, and only the most needy children recovering from serious illnesses can participate in these trips. The M.O.H's of Johannesburg and the Reef, the location health visitors and nurses and the welfare workers are giving us more and more assistance. The cooperation of the M.O.H's and doctors working in the locations has been particularly valuable in connection with the examination of children recommended for the holiday and the selection of the cases which are most likely to benefit from a holiday by the sea. In order to ensure permanent benefit from these trips, a system of after-care is essential, and it is hoped to enlist for this work the cooperation of both European and Native Women's Societies in Johannesburg and on the Reef.

PERMANENT CAMP SITE.

Negotiations are proceeding for the transfer to the Committee of a site in the released areas on the coast of Natal for the establishment of a permanent hostel so that convalescents can be sent there at any time of the year and for a longer period to ensure complete recovery. At present, children can only be sent during the school holidays, since the only available accommodation is school-buildings. In these negotiations we have had the greatly valued help and advice of Dr Park Ross and Dr Anning.

CONVALESCENT HOME.

Since its inception, the Committee has had in view the establishment of a Convalescent Home for African Women and Children in the neighbourhood of Johannesburg. Many of the children recommended to us are in more urgent need of a long course course of careful nursing than of the more exciting seaside holiday. It would be a tremendous benefit to the health of the native people if funds can be collected for such a home.

THANKS.

The Committee's thanks are due to the public of Johannesburg and the Reef for their continued support, to the Press for valuable publicity and "The Star" especially, which makes acknowledgment of donations to the Bantu Children's Holiday Fund in its columns. We greatly appreciate the second gift of stationery from Mr H. W. Vorenberg, and we desire to record our grateful thanks to Messrs Pearse and Ryan for kindly acting as Hon. Auditors again this year.

OTHER ACTIVITIES.

1. Improvement of Municipal Transport Facilities for Africans.

A joint deputation from the Johannesburg Branch N.C.W. and the Joint Committee of European and African Women waited on the Tramways Committee of the City Council, and asked for improved transport facilities for Africans living in Johannesburg. The Committee welcomes the improvement since made.

2. Rest Rooms.

The Joint Committee made representations about the need for a Rest Room for African Women at the corner of Diagonal and Bree Streets. The Committee is grateful to Mr Kurt Jonas who prepared drawings of suitable buildings for this site, and these drawings were submitted to the Health Department of the City Council. The Committee's efforts in this regard were unsuccessful.

3. Medical Services in Locations.

Protests were lodged with the Municipal Health Department at the total inadequacy of Medical Services in the Johannesburg locations, particularly Orlando. These services have since been considerably increased. A deputation from the Joint Committee interviewed the Dean of the Faculty of Medicine, University of the Witwatersrand, to enquire into the possibility of utilising the voluntary services of Medical Students in locations. It was suggested that fourth, fifth and sixth year Medical Students might possibly assist in location work under the supervision of the M.O.H's and under the guidance of the Medical Faculty. The Bloemfontein Branch N.C.W. had formulated a similar scheme and the convener of the Public Health Committee of the Johannesburg N.C.W. was invited to join the deputation, and the Johannesburg N.C.W. and the Joint Committee subsequently joined forces on this issue. The Joint Committee approached the Reef M.O.H's Consultative Committee and the University Authorities with gratifying results. The outcome is awaited with interest.

NURSERY SCHOOLS IN LOCATIONS.

The African members of the Committee have been working for the establishment of a creche in the Roodepoort location. The Joint Committee continued its efforts for the establishment of Nursery Schools.

Dear Dr. Xuma,

I enclose a memo from Mr. T.F. Griffin who is a regular subscriber. I have informed Mr. Griffin that I have passed his note to you for consideration as I also think an increase in membership is very desirable.

As you are probably aware, many of our subscribers believe the Social Centre and Sports Club are managed by the same committee, but the Sports Club Trustees have for some years now refrained from appealing for funds and members have been notified that they are expected to support the Club without making appeals other than for membership.

As Mr. Pim will be away for a couple of months perhaps you will deal with the matter.

Yours truly,
