

No. 10 Undated.
Lashes and Spare Diet should be intentionally rehabilitate and not to brutalize Circumstances of the case must be thoroughly gone into.

there goes new enemies of the Government the tendency to disgrace the Africans

- marching a man through the street not done with European Carrying them in open trucks - embitters them - He is disgraced and publicised so much that he feels he must continue.

Solitary Confinement

Classification

More use of suspended sentence for minor offences

Private use of Prisoners - Ward of state + should not be used by the state.

Discourage public interest in more prisoners look upon as a profitable source of cheap labour.
work paid for the man gets nothing out of the pay. They should be paid - a little something so that when they come out he can buy his way through until employed. - Spurned by society he goes out to prey on society and finds it lucrative for a while but soon returns to gaol as a possible candidate for indefinite sentence.

High
Pay

We do not want them given to farmers, mines and industry -

Payment of farm labour. Must not used as farm - undermines economic status of farm workers and their Lack of Educational and Recreational Facilities

taught useful occupations esp.
long term prisoners so to be grateful and thus prepared for independent livelihood.

(a) Literacy.

Hygiene

Leatherwork - Carpentry - Shoemaking -
Tailoring - Dractor Drong - Agricultural pursuit
Gardening - Field prison
Dairying & Cooking - Building & Brick making

(3)

undated

III The Treatment of the Accused persons awaiting trial.

Charge Officer.

A: At Police Hands and Cells

Type of police recruited and his training. The policeman is no friend of . . . man to run away from.

B. In gaol. - Length of time. - get time enough to learn more crime - John - half dozen + assault. - not conversant with African names.

(C) Magistrates Court.

IV Subsidised by Government and other bodies and be independent for the defence of poor persons.

V Possible Simplification of procedure in criminal cases, especially those in which ignorant non-Europeans are especially concerned.

More competent African interpreters
More employment of highly educated with senior status in the department of justice. necessitating their presence in the Court. & give greater confidence in the accused person that there is a chance of him getting justice meted out. - adding assets

4

VI. The Standard of interpretation in the courts and what steps, if any, should be taken to raise such standard

A. Europeanized African language

B. Misinterpretation of African idioms - Guilty or not Guilty. He na demolato.
Una demolato.

More highly educated Africans to be.

VII

VIII. ~~Wanted & discharged~~ - Suspended sentence removal of technical offences against Africans. Seven times to pay

IX. The organization of the Department of Prisons, including the Constitution and functions of Prison Boards, of visitors, the qualification and recruitment of Prison officers dealing with unadjusted persons neither too tall nor too short.

XI. - very necessary
Classification of delinquent & different types of prisoners.

XII. -

XIII. The development of suitable forms of education for all prisoners and their training in handicrafts and in agricultural and other pursuits with a view to their better adaptation to social life, and how far and by what means such training may be given outside prison.

XV The Use of Convict labour by private persons and authorities other than the Government

XV P.

XVII. The transition of prisoners from institutional to social life, including release on probation and the appointment, functions, and control of probation officers

Collection Number: AD843

XUMA, A.B., Papers

PUBLISHER:

Publisher:- Historical Papers Research Archive

Location:- Johannesburg

©2013

LEGAL NOTICES:

Copyright Notice: All materials on the Historical Papers website are protected by South African copyright law and may not be reproduced, distributed, transmitted, displayed, or otherwise published in any format, without the prior written permission of the copyright owner.

Disclaimer and Terms of Use: Provided that you maintain all copyright and other notices contained therein, you may download material (one machine readable copy and one print copy per page) for your personal and/or educational non-commercial use only.

People using these records relating to the archives of Historical Papers, The Library, University of the Witwatersrand, Johannesburg, are reminded that such records sometimes contain material which is uncorroborated, inaccurate, distorted or untrue. While these digital records are true facsimiles of paper documents and the information contained herein is obtained from sources believed to be accurate and reliable, Historical Papers, University of the Witwatersrand has not independently verified their content. Consequently, the University is not responsible for any errors or omissions and excludes any and all liability for any errors in or omissions from the information on the website or any related information on third party websites accessible from this website.

This document is part of the archive of the South African Institute of Race Relations, held at the Historical Papers Research Archive at the University of the Witwatersrand, Johannesburg, South Africa.