

Telephone 2003
P.O. Box No. 102

Vierville,
Bergville,
Natal,
South Africa.

Dear Mrs Porten Thank you for your letter signed p.p. for Alton.

I would much like a copy of the Defense and Aid Fund "Constitution", & would be most grateful if you could have one sent to me.

There is no truth in the rumour that I am leaving South Africa and can urge that it has been put about in order to damage my political reputation. Fetter to this, I have never, at any time refrained from saying, in no uncertain terms, what I think about people who allow themselves to be chased around the world by politicians with evil minded intentions. The other speakers can be quite confident on that point.

I trust Alton will have a pleasant visit to England and America. His visit is of the utmost importance to us all and I know of no one who is able to put across our new point, With kindest regards to you,

yours sincerely

High Champion de Trappigny

Dear Air Vice Marshal,

I am sorry to have delayed replying to your letter of October 2. I am today writing to the Defence and Aid Fund, asking them to forward you a copy of their Constitution, and trust you receive it safely.

Kind regards.

Yours sincerely,
