Dear Friends

Supplement to project request by the End Conscription Campaign, dated 23 January 1985, signed by Mrs Lesley Liddle, Western Province Council of Churches, Cape Town, South Africa.

Recently I had the opportunity of meeting several of you and discussing this request with you. I soon realised that the request lacked clarity on certain practical points. Upon my return to South Africa I raised these with members of the National Council of the End Conscription Campaign. Our clarifications are contained below.

Yours sincerely

Richard Steele

1. The End Conscription Campaign (ECC) is constituted as a front of organizations, i.e. organizations join, not individuals (except at the discretion of the Regional Committees). Member organizations include youth, student, church and civil rights organizations. A full list is contained in the original request.

2. Name of project
End Conscription Campaign.

4. Legal Body
The End Conscription Committee
c/o Western Province Council of Churches address as above.

4. continued

According to paragraph 5 of the Constitution of the End Conscription Committee (attached), the Committee is a "corporate body". The Constitution further explains the structure and responsibilities of the Committee. The Campaign itself is public, and legal according to the letter of the law in South Africa.

5. Sponsoring Church Bodies

The Western Province Council of Churches and the South African Catholic Bishops Conference have agreed to be our sponsors (see letters from both bodies in the original project request, and letters attached to this document). However, the ECC itself will be responsible for submitting reports directly to the funding agencies, with copies to WPCC and SACBC.

6. Pattern of Financing

This is the first year we are working from a national budget, so there are no previous budgets to compare this one with. However, included in the original project request is a budget for a single campaign conducted by the Cape Town ECC last year, being an example of how local costs have been covered up until now.

Due to the size of the budget, and the difficulty of getting financial support from local sources for opposition political projects, we were advised by the South African Churches (who funded various of our activities last year) to apply directly to the major church funding agencies overseas. This we did, in the project request of 23 January, 1985. There was one major inadequacy in that request though, and that was in ^{not} stating what our own material contribution to the Campaign is. This is rectified below. The National Council of the ECC feels that the R70 000 we are requesting from the agencies should still stand, and what is listed below is supplementary to that. Our goal is to increase the proportion of "own contribution" in time, but it is very unlikely that we will ever attain complete self-sufficiency, because of the type of campaign it is.

a. Own Contribution.

i. Cash:

concerts, t-shirts, posters, stickers, buttons	R10 000
subscriptions from member organisations (voluntary)	3 000	R13 000

ii. Non-cash:

■ staff time, calculated at R15.00 an hour, for 52 weeks. Based on existing contributions:-

Durban: Diakonia (8 hours)	R6 420
International Fellowship of Reconciliation (IFOR) (2 hours)	1 560
Methodist Christian Education and Youth Department (2 hours)	1 560
Johannesburg: Human Awareness Program (8 hours)	6 240
Catholic War and Peace Group (5 hours)	3 900
Cape Town: Western Province Council of Churches (1)	780
National Union of South African Students (1 hour)	780
The Ecumenical Action Movement (3 hours)	2 280

■ office space for the field worker:-

Durban: IFOR	400
Johannesburg: SACC	600

printing and photocopying:-

University of Cape Town, Student Representative Council	700	R25 120
---	-----	----------------

TOTAL	R38 120
-------	-----------------------

6. continued

b. Financial support requested from international funding agencies:

C.I.D.S.E. (Catholic agencies in Europe) (except Misereor)	R23 000	} "Regional activities and campaigns" part of the budget.
World Council of Churches	10 000
Quaker Peace and Service	10 000
Misereor, and Diakonisches Werk - Human Rights Desk	27 000	} "National" part of the budget.
TOTAL	R70 000

All of the above agencies have expressed their willingness to support the ECC. No reply has been received from Swiss Federation of Churches, Oxfam, Church World Service, and Dunchurchaid, so we are not presuming support from them this time round.

The agencies will deposit the money in the accounts of either the WPCC or the SACBC (see attached letters).

7. Time Needed for Implementation of Project

The project has already started. We envisage this to be a very long term project, with plenty of expansion along the way. However, we are thinking now of a three year cycle, so would appreciate support through the next three years at least.

8. Accountability

As the Constitution explains, ECC is primarily responsible to its member organizations. However, reports will be drawn up periodically, and distributed to relevant groups, including the WPCC, SACBC and funding agencies. ECC will undertake as well to share pamphlets, articles and other publications with the agencies, and will endeavour to meet any special requirements agencies may have.

The ECC affirms the concept and reality of "partnership" with its supporters. In particular, we feel that we can make a positive contribution to the debate on militarization and conscientious objection in the donor countries.
